Basile Amiot } An Indictment for stealing privily from a Shop above the value of 5s—

Jn P3o Sebeau keeps a Store in St Paul Street in Sept last about 17h the Pr— came in and told Wr that his brother ~~offered him~~ had told him that he would pay him in boards & plancks as he had no money— Wr. d. he knew no person of that name that owed him any thing— Pr d. he wd pay for his brother— Wr told him to go & with him into his room Pr went away— immediately after Wr came back into his Shop & missed a piece of Merino & piece of Calico— he went after him but did not find him, but informed Mr Racicot of what had happened and told him that the man must be watched, as he would commit some other offence— That Pr was arrested afterwards for stealing from Kilcoury's and taken to Police office, and on coming out the Pr told him that he had taken the piece of Merino from his Shop, and that he would find it in Northam Dunn's in Quebec Suburbs Wr found them accordingly— valued Calico at 3d. and the half piece of Merino at 15s—

Calico was found to be missing and no other person had come into the Store—

It was about midday the Pr was in his Store— he had purchased the Merino that morning the Calico some time before— That while Wr went into his room some other person might have come into his Store— The Pr was sober

sober when he first saw him, but he was in liquor when he saw him in the afternoon — Saw Pr in the afternoon in the afternoon, he was about to come in a second time — The Pr appeared to have been ill used and after he came out appeared to have been ill used the W told the bailiffs to endeavour to find out where his goods were and he would let him go that the Pr & they would find the goods at the house of one Wm Dunn, & the Pr found them there —

Jean Chrysostome Racicot, merch? lives in St Paul Street when he keeps a store — in Sept. last Lebeau came to his shop & told him that he had been robbed by one Arnot — & so there he goes, we must watch him — he went to Kennelly's, W. followed him to several places — when he came out, the Commis of Kennelly gave him a blow when two pieces of Worsted fell from him — he was struck by others — they took him to the Court House, when the Pr told them if they would let him go he would tell them where the goods were — the Pr went with them to house of one Dunn, where the effects were delivered to them & Lebeau had left —

When he saw the Pr he was somewhat in liquor. he was struck by the Clerk of Kennelly & his Vigi — That on the way to the Court House, Lebeau told him he would let him go if he would tell him where his goods were, when Pr told them where they were, and went along with them

to

them to Wm Quinn's —

William Quinn — lives in Duck Lane — keeps a boarding house has seen the Pr — he stopped at his house in Sept last & slept there — he went out after breakfast & when the W. returned to his house that day his wife told him that the Pr had left 2 pieces of Calico & muslin — saw the Pr afterwards who told W that he had got them 2 pieces of goods from his brother a merchr in St Paul's Church — & asked proofs of W. if she could buy a gown — he was then sober — but when he came back in the evening with the Constable he was in liquor —

X

There was other boarders in the house of W. when the Pr came to the house wth the Constable and Racket, it was the Cutler who asked for the things which the Pr had left there, when the wife of the Pr: shewed them to him

Jo. Malo. Constable — was at the Police office when the articles mentioned were brot to the Police office by Wm Lebeau, & they have remained in his possn since —

In B.R. Jo Barnet } An Indictment for burglary —

John Putnam, on January last he lived in the house of Borbuck & Gregory in the D.L. Sub Orlin Borbuck, & Isaac Gregory — W. lived in a part of the house as a dwelling house — the leather kept in the same Story where W. lives & within 12 — 15 feet from his bed room — There are 8 windows in the Shop — They were all closed when W. left the Shop the evening of 8th Jany last — There was a quantity of leather in the Store that night — the property taken belonged partly to Berk & partly to Borbuck & Gregory — went to bed about 10 O'Clk at night was not disturbed in the night — the whole house was secured that night all doors & windows shut — about 5 in part 6 he got up and observed some leather in the yard, & then saw a sash window open — and missed 5 sides leather & seven Calfs skins were stolen the Calfs skins were worth £5 — the leather worth £3 — the leather belongs to B. & G. the Calfs skins to the Berk — Got a search warrant next day; on the information of one Henry Jackson and he suspected the Ps & the warrant was given to the high Constable & he with him & some others went to his house in the same Suburbs. The on going to the house did not see the Ps at first, Mr Debuke spoke to Mr who came into the room where the party was — Debuke came down from the Garret with leather — it was wrapped in a cloth and was brot to the Police Office when he was put the sides splatters of Mr Smyth & the calfs skins of the butchers — They are the same now shewn — that he identifies their skins by the colour & manufacture —

after was taken, but 7 were finished — the leather he did not mark on it, but he verily believes the leather to be the same stolen that might belonged to B. & G —
he has been engaged in the business for 7 or 8 years —
& can know his work — & finished the upper leathers himself —

Is sure it was on the 8th Inst. thinks it was on a Thursday — The windows were all shut that night before he went to bed — is positive they were all fastened by buttons on the inside — does not know that he went round & examined every window in particular, but thinks they were, for if the buttons
were not [illegible] the windows will not remain shut —
There is no lock on the door between the shop and the rooms in q[uestion] he lives in — There is a room q[uestion]
is not occupied, he cannot say whether it was shut or not — left the shop between 7 & 8 o'clock over the article then at hand — Geo. Tait the lives in the house as Work hands a servant woman —
Did not finish the calfs skins himself — finished the upper leathers himself — believes it to be his — has seen similar leather belonging to other persons — but the number of sides of skins he had finished the night before last which were missing the next day — That B. & G. may have other similar skins to other persons, but not those now shewn

There are 5 or 6 workmen who work in this shop who are all acquainted with the interior of the shop where the skins were laid — Wm. Lord & Skins, and B & E. 5 sides leather —

By Asst Genl. The window open had a pane of glass broken in it by which the button might be entered the window opened

George Fitch — in Sept. last he was employed last Wednesday before & Sat'y he had worked on certain Calfs skins — has been in the trade for 23 years — he can identify his own work — he ~~marked~~ had been at work on the insides of the 6 — on several skins — marks one in particular — by cutting out a part between the shank & the buttock, of — is particularly a mark of his own — same mark on another she shown — cannot tell the value, believes them to be worth above 15/ each — Cannot speak as to the leather — There were other persons who worked there —

F. The Calfs skins are not finished —

Wiley Hamilton Reid was in the service of Putnam on & Sat'y last — has been over 7 years in the trade of tanner — he worked at leather — and prepared some leather for Mr Putnam — There is one of the sides now shown of harness leather, has his private mark on it — a straight line — This leather is not in a state to be sold — Was then on morning of the 9th Mess had gone there before him and the leather had been stolen — two panes of glass were broken in the window wh. was open.

It is not usual for B. & G. to sell skins in the unfinished state —

Wm Rosalie Depeau, was Dishandler - lives in house of Madame Caty in St Louis Sub — she lives in the lower part of the house as he Lady last Made Joannet the mother of the Pr lived in the upper part — Knows that the Pr went out at night about ½ past nine & does not know when he came back — it might have been midnight or 1 o'Clk — he had a load with him — does not know what it was but thinks it was leather; he took it up to the garret — Has heard he was a shoemaker by trade —

Benj: Delisle. high Constable — on 9 or 10 Last inst had a search warrant issued to search Pr; w. Martineau & Putnam to search for leather stolen — saw Pr take from his servant — he owned he had no leather in his possession & must look — Pr went up to the garret, & first did not see any leather, it was hid between the Chimney & the gable end, where it was found and the skins and leather were produced were found — Putnam recognized the leather to be his — the Pr on seeing M. D. he would surrender — although he observed a window open — Pr was arrested —

Julien

Julien Martineau, accompan. Debts on search at house of Dr Wm Wood one Jackson to go between the house to prevent escape — heard some one run towards the window, but on seeing debts he surrendered — he went up to the garret & found the cloths between the Chimney & the gable end of house

Verdict, Not guilty of breaking & entering ~~or Land~~ but guilty of stealing as laid in the Indictment

The King. —
Henry & Abraham Joseph } On Indictment for stealing from a Vessel on a Navigable River above the value of £15. —

William Bingham, lives in Montreal, on 27th Sept. last he left Montreal to go to Lotbiniere, he took with him his portmanteau & cloaths — it contained all the articles mentioned in the Indictment and of the value therein stated, except the frock — he embarked with his portmanteau on board the Lady of the Lake Steamboat, saw the Pr on board as a passenger — he went on board till they arrived

pc

at Berthier — did not see him go on shore there —
W. went to Grenon's at Berthier, and he saw a boy
come and take him if he had found his portmanteau —
W. Sr. he had seen it under the table on board the boat & had seen it at ½ past 6 P.M. — This was just after he had it was missing — The boat stops at a quay to take on wood, when W. went on shore about ½ past 7 P.M.
there is some confusion on these cases, & it would be easy to carry off any thing from the boat — W returned to the boat & found his portmanteau gone with its contents — W suspected that some person had taken it on shore — offered to one Martel a boat a reward to send some one to Berthier to endeavour to find his portmanteau — The Boat did not stop long at Berthier — but went on — Published his loss in the Newspapers — He rec.d some information from Capt Nicholls about 3 weeks after that one David Armstrong had told him that a man on board another boat had been robbed of his portmanteau at Berthier, & that suspicions had attached on the Pr — The W waited a little & upon further information took out a search
warrt — wh was put into the hands of Mortineau & Hebert
the High Constable — The first ward was at house of one Lesperance where it was said the Pr lodged — nothing was found there — he got a 2d ward — directed to one Jas McCabe in Montreal — The Pr was then in Gaol on another charge —
saw McCabe one Saml Davis & bot. down some things wh he asked the W if he knew the things — this was the day after the Pr had been sent to Gaol — on going up to the room wh Pr had lodged, he found some pkt bks & some shirts — where the name was marked on the shirts, the prior had been cut out — he found then 6 or 7 shirts, &
2 or 3 pkt bks — There was a trunk found in the Prs room

yst

qt. was locked, it was carried to the police office where it was opened, and in it was contained the portmanteau qt. he lost and in qt. all the articles above mentioned were when he embarked on board the steam boat. — produces the key of the portmanteau — identifies some of the articles found in the portmanteau speaks to one pair whf wt a mark on it — several others of were similar to those he had — 5 Shirts — a pair of trowsers — Before this he saw the Pr. 2 or 3 times in the Street, but he always avoided Him — W. took a particular interest in a certain Button & interrogated the Pr about it —
He went to another person, Mr Bethel a Silver Smith, who told him he had melted down the top, it was for holding soap — W. described the top to Mr Bethel, —

Pr

He had been several times on board the Steam boat on the day he went off — his portmanteau was taken on board the boat in the presence of Wits — there is may be other portmanteau's of the same kind to be had — saw all the articles put into the portmanteau & put some of them in himself — thinks that the frock Coat now on the Pr is property of the W. has no particular marks but to wh he can speak — saw his pr. about ½ past 6 o'Clk — before they arrived at Birthin — arrived there between 7 & 8 o'Clk —
says he cannot charge his memory wt having been present when the proceedings were had by Davis agt the Pr —
That when he went to Mrs Cabe's he saw Davis, Mathewson and Roberts — Davis asked Mrs McCabe if he could go up stairs — Davis had been up stairs before and brought down a pistol whf qt. Wn. supposed to be his

That

that he bought these Pkts in town, there may be others of the same kind, but considers that Pkt kept to be his — The trowsers shewn, were new — believes them to be his — has seen little cloth of the colour —

That this morng the son of Davis brot a Pkt like ye he considers to have been one of those he had just put into his portmanteau —

Mr Fizette, Mr Panet & Mr Lemothe were the only individuals who left the boat at Berthier besides the Pr

Joseph Nickless, comm[d] Lady of Lake St. Boat in Sept last, on friday 27 Sept left Montreal for Quebec, last wit was a passenger — The Pr was a passenger also — both went to Berthier — the boat stopt there about ½ an hour — the Pr left the boat there — wt 3 other passengers —
The waiter came to Wt & told him he missed Mr Bonsfours portmanteau from under the table — he entered a search on board but could not find it — Wt had gone on shore, but came back, & as they were setting off the Wt & he would send over from Sorel, as some person might have taken it by mistake — at Sorel one Wardle was spoken to on the subject — On his return to Berthier from Quebec he was told that a boy had been seen carrying a portmanteau from the boat to his house — and on his ~~coming~~ going back to Quebec, he saw Mr Bonsfours there & told him of this — & on his way back he stopt at Berthier he told Mr Morrison to take a good look out as he suspected the Pr — from what he heard from Capt Armstrong — and Wt was so concerned at the suspicions he entertained of Pr — that he told Radger to tell B— to get a search warrant & search B— house, at one Taylor's, also at his brother in law's Mr Davis — where Pr used to lodge —

There

There was a young man who embarked at Montreal and was turned out of the Cabin some miles before they arrived at Berthier, on acct. of his bad conduct.—
The Pr. was a passenger on the next trip up from Berthier to Montreal, but he had no baggage ~~from~~ with him

Thomas Ludford, was a waiter on board L. Lake on 27 Sept last she left Montreal on 27 Sept last for Quebec, saw Mr B. & the Prs on board as passengers — the dau. of B — brot a portmanteau on board like the one here present & Mr received and placed under the table — there was also a tin box and a wooden trunk — arrived at Berthier between 7 & 8 o'Clk — Prs & Mr B. went on shore there — on examining the things under the table for Berthier, he found the portmanteau was missing — & acquainted Capt of it — & also Mr. B. when he returned back to the boat — a search was made on board the boat, but the portmanteau was not found, that it was easy from the darkness and the number of persons going on shore, that the Prs might have been removed without its being perceived —

James McCabe lives in Capital Street in Montreal, keeps a tavern & boarding house — last Pr he has been at different times in his house — ~~last~~ sometime about Christmass he came there saying he meant to remain the winter, he had a large trunk with him similar to the one now shewn — he had an apartment & bed given him on the 2d floor — the trunk remained there until Mr Delisle from others came & took it away w a search warrant — the trunk was locked when it was seized, & it was carried to the Police office, where it was opened. Mr was present & saw a portmanteau inside the trunk — Mr B. was

then

then and produced a key which fitted the lock in the portmanteau & opened it — the contents were claimed by Mr B. as his property, except an old black coat — and a pr. of trowsers — There were bks, shirts, coats found in the portmanteau —

When Mr B. went up to the Pr room he claimed all the things as his the blk coat also, but at Police Office he denied the old blk coat to be his —

Mr Davis was there — never saw him there before — but he was not in the Pr room before he went up with Welch & Mrs —

Francis Bethel — Lumber living in Montreal — about the month of Nov. last he purchased a silver shaving case from a person whom he thinks was the Pr — it was a plain box without any marks except the stamps — its value as a box it might be worth six dollars — & Pr thinks he paid Pr 4 dollars for it — that Mr B. afterwards called on Pr — and the description he gave to him of it corresponded exactly with the box Pr purchased —

Gilbert Petrie, taylor, sews the Pr last fall — he called on Pr to get some cloths altered — a pr of blk trowsers — a blk waistcoat & pr. drab coloured trowsers — Drab trowsers are same Pr produced — They were to be reduced, as they were very large — thinks Pr & they were his brothers — The Pr ordered them as required — The trowsers were quite new when Pr brot them to him — Pr charged also a frock Coat for the Pr — but it is not the same one the Pr now wears —

Rebecca

Rebecca Thornton — Was in service of Mr B. in Sept last he then went to Lothbury — saw his trunks packed up — remembers having seen silk stockings such as now shewn were packed up — then were shirts also put in, but does not know the same — there was a number of Socks also put up — there is one pr. with Mr B.'s trunks on them — there were Coats also a new blk coat — believes the same now shewn — there was a pr. brown coloured pantaloons put up also, such as now shewn — The trunks was full packed, and Mr B — was himself present a part of the time —

x

All she can say, is, that similar articles were packed up in the trunks as those now shewn —

John Johnson — in Sept last he was in service of Mr B — he went to the taylors for a pr of pantaloons such as those now shewn, pt he delivd to Mr B —

Catherine Martin — 16 Pr — In Oct or Nov. last the Pr made her a present of a silk pkt like similar to that now shewn — believes it to be the same — for then lived at Mr Davis's when Pr used to come — That Pr told her to say, that if any one came there to enquire if he had any effects there to say, that he had none — this was last full —

x

Banp.

Benjam: Aldrich, high Constable — on January last he was charged wt a Search warrant — in consequence of information that Pr had his trunk at McCabe's — W went to McCabe's — asked McCabe if he had not a trunk belonging to St Joseph — asked if then were not two — he that there was — went up wt W. to room of Pr wt McCabe, & saw the outside trunk & perceived there was another within it — told McCabe he had no search warr — but asked if he had no objection that he should take charge of the trunk — That Mrs Ann Davis came in & found 5 shirts, 2 silk pocket hkfs a pr of trowsers which were found about the room and were claimed by Mr B. as his property — The W carried the trunk to the Police office — where it was broken open, and in the inside of it the portmanteau now produced, cut as now shewn — & Mr B — produced a key wh opened the lock of the Portmanteau —
In this portmanteau were found —
1 blk Cloth Coat —
1 pr pumps —
6 silk hkfs —
1 old silk stock
8 pr large Socks — all which have remained in the hands of W. ever since,

Defence —

Henry Bromley, has known the Pr for some time, never heard any thing of him, never had any dealings wt him —

William Drenan - lives w^th Marton Leishman baker. was in his service on Sept^r last - W^m has charge of the bread cart - on the 13^th Sept^r last he went out with the Cart several times - settles w^th his master every evening - he keeps his money he receives in a leather bag - he had that ~~morning~~ evening seven bills in paper thought to be four bills of 2 dollars and one bill of one dollar in his bag - the money was taken out of the bag - they were in 3 parcels - when he came home he put his bag on the seat of the cart, while he went into the house for bread - he did not perceive that money was taken till two or three hours afterwards - Cannot swear to the bills now produced being the same, but are like them - told his master the money was stolen and he suspected the P^r he was about the yard when Cook came home in the morning - In the course of the night the W^s searched the breeches pocket of P^r and found the money in the watch pocket of one of his pairs of trowsers. The W^s took down the trowsers & asked to whom they belonged, the P^r said they belonged to one George but wish had seen the P^r wear them - Next morn^g the P^r confessed having taken the money but said it was for fun -

4 in one parcel & 3 in another -

Cannot say whether the bills he lost were the Montreal Bank - The P^r has been in Leishmans service about

two

two years. He did not count the money on his return that morng having rec'd 20/ from one person and 15/ from another. There were 4 persons who were working in the bakehouse at that time. There were three besides Pr who slept in the same room. He missed the money about one o'Clock that day. Cannot say whether the Pr had on the trowsers that day or not he found the money

Malcolm Leishman, baker in Montreal. In Sept last the last Wt & the Pr were in his service. he had much confidence in last Wt. he is in the habit of settling wt him every evening. he told Wt he had 7 dollars in his bag wch had been taken out of his bag. in the course of the night the last Wt told him he had found the money & where he found it, and delivered it to Wt. the same bills as are produced and are bills of the Montreal. two bills of 10/ each and 3 of 5/ each. Donovan told Wt he had found the money in watch pocket of the trowsers of the Pr. The Pr next morng before all the men in the bake house the Pr came in full on his knees & begged to be forgiven as he had taken the money. The Wt. told him he forgave him, but he must leave the house.

Never threatened the Pr to horse whip him if he did not confess he had taken the money, he had not even seen him before the morng he came in & made the confession.

and had not the Pr come back and threatened to prosecute

John Walker was at Leishman's last Sept. when the Pr came down and acknowledged he had taken the money, but on Leishman's asking him if he had taken the money the Pr said he had. That it was only in a joke & did not mean to keep it on this Mr Leishman told Pr he forgave him but that he must leave the house —

Heard Leishman say that Pr had threatened to prosecute him in Damages for defamation of character — That when Leishman spoke to the Pr he seemed a little frightened —

Louis Malo Constable, arrested the Pr at Mr Murphy's — told him it was for stealing at Leishman's — the Pr s^d he had taken the money but it was not his intention to keep it, as it was done in a joke —

Defence —

On Indictment for stealing above the value of forty Shillings from the dwelling house —

Antoine Gendreau, Carter, lives in Montreal. The Pr came to his house in June last, at the request of his sister that the Pr. was received in his house — he was not known to Wr before — he staid without paying any thing for his board until 29 Sept. on that day Wr this wife went to Church — Wr then had his money in a cupboard or buffet — it was hard money — there were about 100 french Crowns — about 50 Sp. Dollars — about 200 American Sp. Dollars — There was in all about £80 — the key of the buffet was put under key in the drawer of his wife — on going away, he told the Pr if he went out to lock the door and put the key in the Stable where he usually put it — The Pr promised he would take care of the house — The W returned from Church between 11 & 12 o'Clock, found his house shut but did not find the Key in the place he desired Pr to put it — His wife went behind the house and found shutter of window open & by it she went in, and found that the Cupboard had been broken open and the money carried off — There was an axe lying near the place, yt had been brot there — His suspicions fell on the Pr He looked for Pr & going round he was informed by Mr De Vaderwater that a man had come there with one of his Carters, who appeared to be in a hurry — The money was in a linen bag — There was a silk & Cotton purse inside — The W. pursued after the person described & went on to Sorel — yet no news there & went to Berthier, where he heard that P's man had passed the ferry over to Sorel — he returned there & got a warrant he met the Pr on the traverse — W. found Pr at house of Trigganna, & on searching him money was found on him — The Pr did not appear surprised — When the Pr was at the house of the W he was indebted to W for 3 loaves of bread & a candle —

The Stable where the Key was directed to be put, was not locked —

Marie

Marie St. Martin — wife of last Witness to the Pr. who lived at the house of Wr from June to Sept. on 29 Sept. the Wr. & her husband went to Mass & locked the cupboard where the money was & the key was locked up in another cupboard of wh Wr had the key — The money in the Cupboard was in a linen bag, & consisted of — pieces mentioned in the Indictment — her husband handed Pr in case he went out to lock the door and leave the key in the Stable, when it was usually put — When she returned home, she knocked at the window shutter, & opened, she went in, & found the ax in the room, where it ought not to be, & the tongs on a chair — the door of the Cupboard was forced open and the money was gone — the outer door was shut and the key there — She suspected the Pr, and pursuit was made after him — & heard he had taken the road to Berthier & that he had hired a carriage from Vadeboncoeur to go there — Knows the silk purse now shewn, to be her property which was in the linen bag in the Cupboard when she went to Church wh her husband —

Franc. Chiffre de Vadeboncoeur — he keeps carriage for hire — says nothing further —

Louis Couture — was in service of Vadeboncoeur on 29 Sept last the Pr came to hire a carriage to go to Varennes — The purse now produced, the Wr rec[d] from the Pr at Berthier, he emptied his money into a hat — on going out of the house where they stopt, the Pr emptied another purse of Cotton — there was different kinds of money —

he

he left the purses in the house.

At the foot of the Current the Pr requested of Wr to go to the end of the Islands, when arrived there he requested Wr to go on to Lavalthie — here Wr agreed to take him on to Berthier — they slept at Lavaltrie & next day went to Berthier — they stopt at the house of his father, when the Pr emptied out his money into a hat, and where Wr saw the purse now produced —

The Wr did not receive the purse from the Pr but after he had emptied his money out of the different purses into his hat — and was going away, the Sister of Wr took up this purse Lavalthie & called to Pr that he was leaving ~~forgetting~~ his property behind him, when he Pr he did not care for it & that she might keep it on this the Wr Pr he would take the purse as it would suit him very well — knows the purse to be the same he saw Wr Pr —

Marguerite Bresettier — at last St Ours she lived at Mrs Glass's. — she boarded there — the Pr came there the same morning — he asked of Wr to accompany him to Varennes, to get — she agreed if Mad Glass went not her — on this another Cabriolet was hired & Mrs Glass went in it — they went to Sorel boat, but it not being there, they went on to the end of the Island — but St. she had no cloaths for the journey — but Pr he would buy cloaths for her — they went on to Berthier — where he gave her 13 Dollars — & 2 Crowns before she set out from town — she got for the dress she bought — she went went to bed, w^d him — came back w^t him, and he again returned to bed — Saw him emptying the money that was in Short bag into a hat —

That at about 8 o'clock the Pr^s pd Mrs Glass for a shawl & cap. 6 dollars of the ws had borrowed from Mrs Glass — Was present when Pr^s was arrested at Sorel —

x^n

When Pr^s came to Mrs Glass's Keeper this time, she has seen money w^t the Pr^s about time Mrs Glass took charge of 5 dollars for him —

Pierre Trigarone, a bailiff — lives at Sorel — the Pr^s was arrested there about 1 Oct. last — the Pr^s came to house of W^s — when there came two persons to the house asking for lodging & his man gave them a room —

Soon after Mr Gendron came there & described the robbery of his money & described the persons — the witness went up to the room w^t Gendron & pointed the Pr^s to be the man he wanted & whom he accused of the offence of stealing his money — there was found a quantity of money in a valise of the Pr^s had with him —

Louis Malo — Keeper of Stolen effects — the last wits. gave into Possⁿ of wits $24. 18. 9. as having been found on the Pr^s & is same now produced — the purse was also delivered to him & same now produced —

Franc Zephyr Lanouville } On Indictment for assault and battery. —

William Jackson — was confined in Gaol on Jany. last — in the same apartments with the Pr — knows a man of the name of Tebbets, who was confined in Gaol some about 12 a 13 Jany — on the 17 Jany. one of Pr Lanouville asked Wn if he would join them to steal the boots of Tebbets, the Wn refused to join them, on this they s. if he would inform on them they would steal the boots that night & give him his share —

In

In the afternoon Lancevilde wanted to borrow the boots of Tibbets as he wanted to visit Wm one Breach — That Wm informed Tibbets that the Ors wanted to steal the boots, and that Wm. at night took the boots put them under the head of Tibbets so that the Ors could not find them — That in the night time the Ors got up & were searching round for the boots, but could not find them — on this Tounnelle Pt to Wm you have declared us, or we would have got the boots — They went to bed, & spoke low together, one of them got up and Tounnelle said we must finish this affair — on this one of them went round the bed and laid hold of the bed cloths and they beat the Wm severely, with a wooden candle stick and with a piece of wood, so that he remained unable to move, and was seriously injured — his arms were bruised, and his head wounded — and he remained motionless, so that one of them said, Tounnelle let him alone — he is dead — on this they called the Gaoler & the guard

Robt — Neilson, Physician, was called to see the last Wm in the night time, in the Prison — found him in his bed, covered with blood, he scarcely his senses at the time, but came to, he had 2 cuts on the head 2 also cuts on the arms & on the back — he remained a considerable time ill from the blows he had received — he was severely beat, and a man of

a wealthy constitution could not have endured — it — Jackson required that Lawrence should be taken out of the room, otherwise he feared he would kill him — W continued to attend Jackson for some time — but the end of the month he was much recovered —

Edw^d Hollard, Gaoler. the Pr were in Gaol on 17 Janry last. when Jackson — Jackson is a debtor — but was confined among criminal on acct of a dispute he had — There was a dispute in the night of 17. Janry the Centinel called to stop them were murdering each other in ward N^o 8 — went up & called out Silence — as he w^d quit them in room — went down, Sent more centinel — he went up again. when one of the Pr called out that a man was murdered — called the guard down in found Jackson covered w^t blood, lying on his bed & unable to speak — Dr Nelson came, dressed his wounds — the Dr Fournelle visited and, s^d I'm the man to be struck him & none other, I was obliged to do as I did, as Jackson was too strong for me —

Alexander Tibbets — was confined in same room w^t Jackson & Pr^s in Gaol on 17 Janry last — That Jackson told W That his boots were to be stolen, and gave them to him at different times — he did not say who, but understood That it was some of those in the room at him & there were none other besides the 2 Pr^s Jackson — Slept in same bed w^t Jackson — 2. on the outside — That

That Lancaville began to speak about his affair which he had had, & about Hellenstein — and it was said by Fournelle that Hellenstein was the strongest man in Gaol — they went to bed — that Jackson began again to speak about Hellenstein that W. Shaw requested J. Jackson to be quiet — on this Jackson S. if they are not quiet he would piss them both — Jackson was then quiet — That Fournelle got up & put on his Cloaths saying I must be put in irons to night — Lancaville called to him to come to bed — he refused — and said we must see how it will go — on this L. got up, & they Quarrelled as if they meant to fight together — on this Fournelle Lancaville asked W. if he had said to L. that he wanted to steal his boots — That on this L. drew the blanket from off W. so as to cover up Jackson — did not see L. strike Jackson, but saw Fournelle strike him, and Jackson still lying in bed — that W. said a blow or — was given by Fournelle — Jackson remained like a man prostrated from the blows — That Lancaville called for the Guard, when Gaoler came and removed Fournelle — who said out that he was the man who struck Jackson —

Defence —

Evans Richer — In Janry. last was in No. 4. in Gaol — from what

what he observed there appeared to have been some difficulty between Jackson & Hallenstein & that if he Jackson want into No. 4 — it was that Pr should come through his hands — his ravages, as they had done to others —

Allen Campbell — Is confined in same room w^th Jackson
since the difficulty between Jackson & Pr — never heard Jackson say any thing agt Pr —

Charles Perkins — Is confined in the room next to Jackson
but in same ward — That some 3 or 4 days before this, Pr wanted both the 2 Prs if they did not behave themselves —

Joseph Audry — was in No. 8 — in Gaol — Jackson & the Pr
was fortunate in striking first, as otherwise they ohd
have received a good dressing from him — That he heard Jackson say, that he wanted them in order — that he must have satisfaction of them, & that if the brother of Pr had not used intemperate language to Jackson
he would not have prosecuted him —

Danl Driscoll Jr. Constable. Hallenstein was first in the same ward wt Jackson, who was not pleased as he did not want to have disturbance —

Joseph Durocher. Has been in same room wt Jackson, who has occasioned trouble upon the debtors — has a knowledge of two different times —

François Leclaire } On Indictment for Grand Larceny.

Henry Sprouls, lives at Longueuil, he had on the 30th January last a ~~quantity~~ number of fowls belonging to him there were at least 30 of them — The next morning they were all gone but one — they were taken out of the Stable, the door ~~open~~ shut by a cheville, it was shut but the door of fowl house was open — Gave information in town. and found 4 days after that a dozen or half of his fowls were at the police office — a great part of his fowls were lifted and some remarkable fowls among them. That one Bousquet told him he had stopt the fowls sent them to the police office — they were worth 1/3 the couple — they were choice fowls & worth more when alive —

x2.

There were no particular marks on them, except one or two that had their feet crooked, their feet having been frozen — saw his fowls about midnight, the night the fowls were taken —

Franc. Bousquet, is a huckster in town. the last Witness told us about end of January last that he had lost a quantity of fowls & requested him to stop such as he should, if offered to sale — That two days after he observed a person with number of fowls in a tea box — he asked where he got fowls — he ans. they belonged to a man of Longueuil — soon after the Pr. came up & he was asked where he had the fowls, he d° he had them on the Quebec boundary & that he bought them — Wits called the Clerk of the market & the Pr was arrested — The fowls were in bad order — they appeared to have been choked, some red — the feathers were taken off — Thinks there were 18 fowls in the box — the Pr had sold two couple before —

Ans

Observed there was one fowl that had 3 ergans — this Pr made no resistance when the fowls were claimed

Louis Malo Constable, was at Police office when 18 fowls were brot. to police office about end of July last with the Pr — That Desrosiers and that from the marks on the feet which Sproul had given them they appeared to be the same — The feet here produced are part of the feet of those fowls — they appeared to have been chopped, done too with the shears of chairs

Thinks it difficult to distinguish the head now produced as belonging to a cock of which alive was the property of the Pr — That the feet of fowls may be known —

Henry Sproul — The 2 feet now shewn belonged to a large white cock he had which was taken — Shews the feet to the Jury — shews six feet which he recognizes to belong to fowls that belonged to him —

Defence —

Pierre Lesson, his Pr for several years — was present when a young man asked the Pr to sell a quantity of fowls for him, which Pr agreed to do — does not know the young man — The Pr is the nephew of the Earl of Beauharnais —

Josette Pendron, his Pr — That a young man requested of the Pr to sell fowls for him in her presence about six weeks ago — the fowls were on a tray near the door —

Pierre Dupré, bailiff, his Pr for 2 years past — he belongs to a respectable family — he lived in the service of the Clerk of Crown a month, he was quite conducted himself well — Left him to learn a trade —

three pounds, D. doubled his fist, & says three pounds I'll give you, & reached him down again — when he got up there was again some conversation, & the case proposed for settlement was made, and the Pr renewed his demand for his pounds — this D refused to give, and the Pr went and and went to a blacksmiths shop, distant between 8 & 10 rods from the house — We stood in the door — D & he would go and see if he could not settle wt Pr his dislike having arisen for so small matter — & followed the Pr That D came back directly & the Pr & he would smite me, & that it was time for him to go — & came into the house and put on his coat & hat & asked his uncle if he should go — who & he words — We saw Pr coming back — about 6 to 10 minutes after he had left the house — saw Pr set a knife in his hand, & W. observed to some person near that he had his knife in his hand — some & he was whittling — W — returned into the house, & the Pr came in & stood near the door —, when D. stept up to him & put his hand on his shoulder (or seemingly so in order) & said Damn your arse — you D. you would smite me on this saw the Pr make a rapid movement w his hand towards body of the D — did not see a knife at time in his hand — the D — pushed the Pr down and turning towards his Uncle said, he has stabbed me, I'm a dead man — on this Pr got up he

Wm saw the knife in his hand — Pr went out, was followed by Higgins, who struck the knife out of the hand of Pr and another Higgins took up the knife & threw it towards Wm Down it fell in a wood shed & Wm picked it up. The Pr was committed to charge of Co This was about 4 o'clock — the D. died about 6 o'Clk Wm saw him dead, and the wound on his body — Capt Whitfield was called to take charge of Pr but he refused — & the Pr escaped —

Inquest was held on the body —

When Pr went out of the house, Wm saw that he was very angry — but he did not hear him make use of any words —

Wm delivered the knife to Mr Frelich, the Magistrate it was clasp knife — had D. W. marked on it —

By the Court — It seemed to Wm that the Dr was as much in a passion when he returned back into the house as when he went out —

Pr

The blacksmiths shop is on the road of Pr to his home — D. went out soon after him, saying he wanted to settle — It was after the Pr had been thrown down that he heard the D. say he was stabbed —

room — he had been fighting at one James Brown — a large man — gave Brown black eye — the Pr went away & came back about 2 o'Clk — thinks he was sober. said Wm T. the D — came there a few minutes before the Pr returned, about 2 o'Clk — when D. and Brown, on a sofa — thinks the D. spoke to Pr first, asked what he had been doing — does not rem. the answer — D — S. if he would give him such black eye as that he would give him a 5 dollar bill — D — asked if he remembered the time when he abused his brother — if he had not said he would whip all the Troop's in T — & that he would better begin with him, and laid his hand on the shoulder of the Pr — The Pr on this S he would take the law of him for laying violent hands on him, and that he would have £5 of him — on this D S. if he meant to take the law he would give him something to do, and that he gave him £5 — & struck him with his fist, on holding it up and after having taken off his coat — the D. then kneeled & down, on his getting up he still asked £5 — for a settlement — The D. said he would treat the Company & settle it in that way. The Pr refused that, and Pr went out — the D. followed him — saw D. return & say that Pr would not settle. & put on his cloaths saying that he was going home — another Pr came in, about 5 or 10 minutes after, did not hear what he said — he was talking with Higgins & did not observe what took place — heard some noise — and saw D. come up to the bar where W was & say to his uncle Uncle Freman Arch has stabbed me, he has put his knife in my belly — he then fell down — Brown carried into another room — saw the wound, it was in the belly —

D. died about 6 o'clk — saw him dead —
The Dr. walked in quickly, when he came back to the house —

After the scuffle, when Dr. & D. had returned back to the house, he saw the door of room open —

Jesse Patterson, lives in Stanbridge, about 12 miles from Biggars is a Surgeon — was called upon 1 Sat. last to go to one Bowkers to see a person there that had been stabbed —
On the road was told it was Wm. Truax. who had been stabbed by Dr — was told at Biggs's when he heard that D was deceased — Body was brot. to Biggs's, he — examined the body in the presence of several persons —
the wound was in abdomen about ¾ inch, it entered the linea alba on the left side, it cut the illium one third in a little more — it had 2 folds mesenterica & cut off the superior mesentery artery — had it gone
in a straight direction it must have struck the spine — it was about an inch above some of the intestines, which were hanging out of the wound — Drinks Mad beside, the stab then must have been a cut turning towards the left — the wound appeared inflicted by a knife — it was two inches long, & sufficiently deep to have struck the spine, had it gone straight —
This wound was sufficient to cause the death of the D. —

John Racey, Surgeon, That after the division of the mysentoric Artery, death must ensue almost immediately

Freeman

Freeman Higgins, belongs to Farnham — saw P. & D. — who was his nephew — he was at his W. house on 1st. Sat. last — asked W. to go to Capt. Whitfields to get liquor for his men — went on for as Bowkis with him, W. stopt there & D. went on to Whitfields — Did not notice P. until he heard the 2 talking together — The D. returned about 15 or 20 minutes after he left W. — There was a number of people in the room — Does not rem. the words, but saw D. strike P. & knock him down — saw P. upon ~~him~~ who d. he would take the law of D — swore make him pay dear for it — D. asked for a settlement — swore treat the company — P. d. he would not settle it for less than £5 — on the D. shows his fists d. him on all the four £ you shall get from me — saw P. between house and blacksmiths shop — distant about 10 rods from the house — the P. walked deliberately towards the shop — did not see him come back to the house, — he again heard the P. again say, that he would take the law of D — W. said they had better settle & take something to drink — the P. told W. to take notice I'll take the law of him, would not insist — W. & P. he would not be a witness of any such quarrel & turned the other way — the first thing he heard after that was — Arch. you have stabbed me I'm a dead man, & turns towards the W. he d. Arch — he has stabbed me I'm a dead man — When D. rec'd the wound he had his great Coat on & had prepared to go away — It was not over 2 minutes that he heard the P. say he would take the law of him & the time he heard the D. say he was stabbed —

Saw the wound in the belly of the D — Blacksmiths shop is about 10 rods from house — follow P. as he was going towards the shop homeward. & struck knife out of his hand – D. went back to the house, saw D. dressed him – asked his forgiveness – the D. & he forgave him, and he hoped God would –

&c –

John Bowker – lives in Farnham – keeps a tavern there, was at home in morn'g when Ps came there – on Sat'y last – W. went to his shop, worked there till breakfast time – after returned back to his shop – about 12 o'clk. his son came to the shop & informed W. that the Ps had been fighting w.t son Brown – & wanted W. to come to the house to keep peace – W. told him he would not go. another message came to say that they were breaking the furniture in the best room – went then saw some damage – asked who did it – no person answered – on this Ps came forward & flew upon son Brown – That after dinner he saw the Ps come into his shop with several others, that the D– followed and came within 6 or 10 yards of Ps – when he took out his knife, and threatened D. if he came nearer he would stab him with his knife, that D. said he wanted to settle with him, but on seeing the knife, D. returned back to the house – That the Ps & the people who were with him remained in the shop from 5 to 8 minutes – while they were at the shop door the Ps & his associates were talking together – and they all walked together to the house – That when D– left the Ps and his associates, the Ps folded up his knife and appeared to put it in his pocket – That about

10

10 Minutes a person came to tell him that the Pr. had stabbed the D. wt a knife & killed him — W. went to the house saw the wound on the D. and his intrails coming out — he died about 6 oclk. Knew the D — he was a quiet ~~young~~ and sober young man —

x.

The D. had not his coat off at time he followed the Pr. & his Comrades towards the Shop — it seemed to W. that the D. was disposed to settle with Pr —

Galloway Freeby — lives in Hanbridge. J. P. — Was issued a warrt. agt Pr on information — on this enquiry had afterwards before W. a knife was produced to him by on Franklin Hall — he gave it in charge to Ephraim Hall — the knife was sealed up & seal is same as that now produced — and on being opened saw was the knife to be the same he rec'd from Hall —

Ephraim Hall Constable. the Pr was put into his charge by Wm Freeby with the knife now produced — it was sealed up & is now produced

Capt Dilke. Clk of the Crown. rec'd the sealed packet now shown from last Witness —

Jesse Patterson — brought up again — the wound he saw on the body of the D. could be inflicted by the knife now produced —

Joel F. Hall —

Joel Franklin Hall — is the knife now shewn is the same he picked up, & which he delivered to the Magistrate, with the letters on it — He saw a knife snatched out of the hand of the Pr — saw it ~~pitched~~ thrown on the floor — saw it fall down & picked it up —

Silas P. Dean — was at Bowkers on 1st Inst. saw Pr there — saw the D — Went there between three & four & left P.M. saw Pr & D. at door talking together — D. wanted to settle the business — & to drop it & be on good terms again. they talked some minutes — D. s. he would treat the Company — The Pr. s. it should not be dropped so & went out pretty fast a few rods from the house he that the Pr — was gone — about 10 minutes after he saw them 2 men again talking together, he saw a motion of the hand of the Pr. at D — on which the D. laid hold of Pr & threw him down — and after having thrown Pr down the Pr. the D. jumped back and said, Uncle Freeman he has stabbed me — and we looking saw Pr on the floor with a knife in his right hand — Thinks is the same knife now shewn — Higgins & Pr. followed Pr. out, Higgins struck the knife out of the hand of Pr — & is the same knife now shewn — saw him throw it on a bed & saw him picked it up — They brought the Pr into the house, the D was then lying on

on his back in the Kitchen — when the Pr saw him he seemed sorry for what he had done, said he did not know what he was doing; and begged pardon of the D — who said he forgave him — saw D — after he was dead

Charles Higgins, was in house of Bowker on 1st Jany — saw Pr arrested when Freeman Higgins knocked a knife out of hand of Pr the brother of Wife threw it up a Shed & Heath picked it up —

Benjn Higgins — was at Bowkers tavern on 1st Jany — saw Pr come out of the house & was followed by Freeman Higgins who struck a knife out of the hand of the Pr, like that now shewn & the Wife picked it up and threw it up a Shed, on Heath went to the place when it fell, & heard him say, he had got the knife —

Defence

Frederick Segur — his Pr saw D. on 1st Jany last — Heard D. asked ~~Bowker~~ what he wanted to see whether the Pr would give him a black eye & that he the D. was going to Bowkers for that purpose — ~~he not D~~ that the D. requested Higgins to go with him to Bowkers, as if Pr was there he would give him a whipping

went

went to Bowkers — The Pr came in soon after — and it appeared that D. sought for an occasion to quarrel wt. him, he spoke about some difficulty wt. the brother of D— formerly — The Pr declined fighting wt. D— as if there was any difficulty wt. his brother he could settle it — The D. took off his great coat, his close coat & vest, & then took hold of Pr. & shook him, the Pr. c. to Higgins take notice he has laid violent hands on me — Higgins c. he saw hands laid on him, but of what violence he could not say — The Pr. threatened to take the law of D— on his D— c. he should give him cause, and knocked him down — when Pr. got up, there was a proposition by Mr Bowker to settle & take down this — The Pr. c. he would not settle for less than £5 — The D. holding up his fist c. there is the £5. I'll give you & knock him down again — The D. was a stout smart young man — When Pr. got up he left the room to go home — the D. followed without his dress — he returned soon after & said that he had persuaded the Pr. to come back and settle it amicably — The Pr. came back soon after — and took the opposite side of the room where D. was — & was near the door — saw D. advance towards the Pr — but did not see him touch the Pr. That he saw the Pr. on the ground & the D. standing over him — wt. his hands

hands before him — and cried out Uncle Freeman he has stabbed me I'm a dead man — before this W. heard a scuffle before he saw Pr down — that when Pr returned back into the house there was blood on his face —

When the Pr left the house, he appeared quiet and said he would take the law of D —

The D. said when he followed out the Pr and came back into the house that he had persuaded the Pr to come back and settle it —

The Pr came back perfectly peaceable —

Did not remark a knife in his hands — thinks he would have seen it if he had —

First thing he observed, was when the D. called out Arch. you have stabbed me — & saw him bending over the Pr who was on the ground — cannot say whether he held his hand on his belly as like a person who had received a wound in the belly —

Saw no arms in the hands of the D.

Josph Higgins — the Pr — knew D — was at Bowkers when Pr came in — that Chas. Higgins came to house of Pr to let him know to come down to Higgins and see D. & others give a whipping to Old Bowker — the Pr put an shawl into his Cutter went down to Bowkers Pr went to shop & W. went into the house — saw Chs Higgins

Higgins s^d Truro was going to give a shilling to old Bowker as soon as she got him out of the shop — when P^r came in when D. s^d there has been a man christened here to day, speaks to P^r and he would give a 5 dollars to any man who give him as much — P^r s^d he had fallen on the stone — no the D. it is you who has done this and I will pay you for it — the P^r. appeared quiet and denied s^d he had no grudge with the D — the D took off his cloaths, & told P^r that when we were boys a fishing I lost you fair work. you beat me, & I'll pay you for that too — D then s^d gave a shake to the P^r when he called to T. Higgins to witness it — on this the P^r s^d that he would take the law of him. the D. s^d then I'll give you some cause for it and knocked the P^r down, and when down he kicked him with the heal of his boot and wt the front of it — on this the P^r got up and shewed a mark on his cheek wt blood on it. the P^r s^d that he would settle the matter for five pounds, on this the D knocked him down again — afterwards the P^r got up and went away towards his own house — the D went after him abroft as he was — the D. returned first, and soon after the P^r — the P^r had blood on his face —

to brother in law of Pr he always had a partiality for him, and would assist him when he could — There appeared to be a compliot, as many persons there stood by who might have stopt it, but they seemed disposed to let the thing on —

He saw the Pr after he went out, and told him he had better go home, he appeared like a man deranged, and not to know what he was about — There seemed to be a consul of a party of the Pr — Heard F. Higgins say they had better settle it — Saw the Knife now shewn to him, which belonged to Joshua Welch. & was given to the Pr in exchange —

Daniel Mogey. Junr was at Bowkers on 1 Jany last was there when D. arrived — the Pr was not then arrived — but came after — soon after he D. stept up to him P. a man had been shot and then that day wh. a pair black eyes — & told Pr if he wd give him such a pr of black eyes he wd give him a 5 Dollar bill. the D. pulled off his coat &c — P. he had no grudge against him — D. had hold of Pr and shook him — mentd the difference between Pr & the brother of D — That Pr & he would take the law of him, on this the D he & have some cause for this, & struck P. down — he repeated his blows when down, kicked him with the toe & heel of his boot and stamped upon him — Pr got up & called on company to take notice — D then to settle, but Pr would not settle under £5— when D. shook his fist in his face and said that was the £5. he would give him, & knock him down again— the Pr got up & went out to go home; soon after the D. followed— after an absence of 10 minutes the D. came back put on his cloaths & the Pr followed soon after & took the opposite side of the room where Dr was— on this the D went up towards the Pr said laying his hand on his shoulder and said damn you, will you take your knife to me, and pushed the Pr towards a door and forced it open— and by another twitch he threw him over a bunk, & he fell over an Indian who was lying on the floor— at this time he did not hear the Pr speak to any one—

the D. is rather taller than Pr— who is a peaceable & quiet man—

James Laroy— was at Bowkers on 1st Sunday last when D came in— saw Chs Higgins come to house of Pr that day does not know what cause— Pr went to Pr— and soon after D came in— & a man cleared to a pr of black eyes— damn your arch. you did it, now you to get a damd licking— on this Dr & D had words after him— on this the D. knocked him down, struck him

him 2 or 3 times & then kicked him with the toe & heel of his boot in the face — Pr got up & said he would take the law of him & he wd give him £5 he would settle it — on this D. sd damn you there's the first fd & knock'd him down again — the Pr got up & went out towards the blacksmiths shop homewards, when D followed them — the Pr seemed alarmed — & took out his knife, and did not with him to come near him — & that on this the D. requested the Pr to come back & he would settle, & promised to give his obligation for £5 — the Pr returned, but both did not go in immediately, but hearing a scuffle he went in & saw the D holding Pr down over an Indian on the floor —

Abner Rider, was at Bowkers on 1st Jany last — he was there when he went — W was at Pr house when Chas Higgins came to say that Freman Higgins was going to whip old Bowker — W. went down to Mr Bowkers — D. observd. that a man had been threatened there that day & that he wd give Pr a 5 dollar bill if he wd give him as much — that D. took off his clothes & laid hold of Pr by the shoulders & pushed him back. Pr sd take law of him D knocked him down — & kicked him in the face with his boot Pr got up sd he wd take law of him when D

knocked

him down again, when Pr got up - and went out to go home as Wr supposed - That D went after him - after some time the Pr came back to the house & stood near the store door - That D slipt up to him & said, you'll take the knife to me, and put both his hands on him & push him back of the door - and then drew him forward when Pr make a blow at him, & Pr fell down over the Indian on the floor -

The D. had his great on when Pr returned - the Pr. could have struck the D wt the knife before the Pr was knocked down, without his seeing it

William Rider, was at Bowden on 1 Sept - was there before Pr went in - heard D threaten Pr - a man christened - bet wps - you bet it - 5 Doll. bill, you no the bet - after some words D. slipt off his cloaths, & he was going to take him, Pr. & he had nothing on him - shook on by shoulders - D. & he would take the - knock Pr down - kick him 1 or 2 Pr. got up & still threatened to take Law - to 5 - the Wiggins advised a settlement - Pr. consents to 5 D. knock him down again - saw a little blood on his cheek - Pr. got up & went out - D. followed him - he came back & that Pr had threatened him wt his knife - D had put on his cloaths, slipt

up

stept up to Pr & laid his hand on his shoulder & said to him Damn you will you take your stept up to Pr & pushed him as the partition, & knocked him forwards and on his touching him forward the Pr struck him & before he fell down — Ws saw no knife —

Pr

The D. laid his hands open on the shoulder of the Pr — and then ~~he~~ said Damn your arch wife you take your knife to me & then shoved him up as the partition — & when the D knocked the Pr forward — he saw the Pr give the blow to the D —

On Indictment for stealing above the value of £5 from the dwelling house

John Fennell, lives in Montreal — he left last — ~~He~~ Thos Rigby & he went into Stone's public house near the barracks — saw several Soldiers there — some drink was called for by ~~W~~ they were about changing watches — he offered 5 or 6 dollars in his hand to pay for the drink — Rigby ~~[illegible]~~ Rigby ~~[illegible]~~ entered for the moment — he put up his money in a box & put it in his pocket — but the pocket being bad, the box slipt through — They agreed to meet same hour next day — on going second saw the pr. take up the box, & went down stairs

wt

Wm it a m 5 minutes after came back called to Thos Ripley & told him he had lost his box & gave it to Ripley to deliver to Wm, but Ripley refused at first — however at last took the box & returned it to Wm — & on opening the box found 2 5 Dollar bills gone, & ask for about it, but he sd he had not opened the box — but Wm suspected no other person — There remained £3. 14 — in the box — Another Soldier called to Wm. to know what was the matter — she told him — another soldier began to joke & banter him to — saying he had not lost his money — & while he was speaking to him he found the hand of a soldier from Beach in his pocket, who held the box in his hand, & on pulling it out he put it away he does not know when — his box was gone. he went down Stairs & was met by Serjt Dobbs who laid hold of Wm — who sd he would kill him if he sd he had his money, and ill used the Serjt — Thos. made complaint to the Serjeant Major — who told him to observe as the man passed & when Pte — came up he sd he was one of them — & charged him accordingly, he was arrested & searched in the Guard house the bills were in his box, they were of the Montreal Bank & 5 dollar bills — The Pte returned the box in 10 Minutes after Wm had heard something fall, which

he

he found to be ~~his~~ his box £ 2 bills were gone —

Had been about 3/4 X hour at Stones — Had seen the money in his box about 1/4 hour before he went into Stones — had all his money £6. 4 —
Saw Pr at barrack yard & asked him if he had been at Stone's that night — he denied it — Stone came in about 5 minutes after Pr went away, & he told him of his loss —

Thos Rigby — Was last Wk over at Stones tavern with him about 11 Sept last — had some thing to drink — the Pr. Fennell proposed an exchange of watches wh Wish — & Pr. he would give him a bill of 5 Dollt £2/6 — on saying this he took out the little box in wh his money was — took out one — there were others in the box — they did not then settle, put it off to next day — saw Fennell put the money back in the box — when the Pr there, he came in after Wr Fennell — Did not see Pr go out but saw him return, told Wr he had got a box with money in it, Wr told him to return it to owner. Pr said he would give it to Wr & he might return it — Pr gave it to Wr who gave it to Fennell — who went to the Counter opposite the box & Pr that money had been taken out of it — the Pr went away soon after — Is in the same Regt wh Pr —

Is not acquainted wh Wm Beach — Pr appeared to know that box belonged to Fennell — on the money being declared to be lost, the Pr emptied his pockets to shew he had nothing on them — Had Wr lost his money he would have

have called on the Master of the house —

Margaret Forbes — lives 2d a 3d door from Stones — was at home on 11 Sept last — keeps a Shoe Shop — recollects a man came to her shop about 8 oclock in the evening to get a 5 dollar bill changed — cannot speak as to the Pr — Recollects that Finnell called in next morning in some time to ask Mr if a Soldier had changed a 5 dollar bill changed — she remembers says a Soldier to change money but being busy at the time she did not change, & does not recollect the Pr.

Benjn Delsh. high Constable — Money was put into his hands from the Sergeant Wilson a sum £1.17.1½ and prev £1.1.10½ — on the 12 Sept 1833. & has remained in his possn ever since —

Defence —

Thos Rigby — That the Wt Finnell saying there was among his money what kind of money there was in his hop. he described a 5/6 — prisr might Pr took one out 5/6 prisr asked if that was it Finnell s? it was when Pr gave it back to him — Thinks if Pr had meant to keep that money he might have done it —

Wm Beach — Cannot say he saw the first Evidence never heard his name — recollects the evening a person at Stones &c he had lent money — There were about 20 or 30 Soldiers

and

and one Cuthan, who s^d he had lost his money — saw The Rigby there — That Roberts did not that evening put his hands in that Cuthans pocket — Is now under an accusation on that acct — That no Attempt made to stop W^m on acct of this — That next day he was arrested at the barracks — That trade of W^m is a brush maker in the Regiment — makes sometimes 3/ ℔ day some times or sometimes less —

W^m was recal^d on the guard house by Serj^t Cox. and Serj^t Wilson — a ½ d. 1. 10^{ps} was found on him —

James Cox, Serj^t Major of 24^{th} Regt. Has Corporals and Soldiers in that Regt none of them has ever been accused or found guilty of theft — many of the Soldiers have to expect of £15. or £20 — That Character of Roach is that of an industrious man never found him guilty of any dishonorable action as a Soldier —

An Indictment for Stealing privily from the Shop, above the value of 5/ Sh —

W^m Mead, lives in S^t Lo. Suburbs is a furrier — has S. Davis formerly in Montreal, served his time with him as furrier

he carries on a considerable trade — Knows Mr Harrington Commissioner Market. saw caps in his window for sale went in and priced them, examined them — spoke to Harrington's Clerk — the Caps were low priced — He returned on the 5th Jany last, in the meantime he had seen Mr Davis & told him he had some of his Caps for sale — Wm purchased 6 caps of him of a superior quality for wch he pd 30/ each — they were worth 45/ — some days after he saw more Caps in Harrington window, there were 2 qualities of Caps one quality Mary asked 30/ for & 27/6 for the other — this Wm asked Harrington the first time if these caps were not of Mr Davis — He — said no, that he had purchased them at Auction — there was a gentleman present when he purchased the Caps who had a cap of same quality who had purchased it from Davis — Demy the Caps cheap asked if he had not purchased them of Davis — He — said he had imported the Skins from the States and had employed women to make them up — Wm went to acquaint Davis of this — found his wife she asked 8/ dollars for similar Caps, not of so good a quality — Wm asked if she sold cheaper to others than to him — she — said she had sold none to sell again this season — Wm — said he had seen some of her Caps at Harringtons, but thinks it could not be her Caps — Wm — said he was certain — Asked Davis as to the price of the Caps, he asked 9 dollars —

Wm

W. then s. he had sold the Caps cheaper that he had bot. them at H—. Davis went to H to see the Caps he had thus bought, on seeing them he said he had been robbed — the wife of Davis said the same thing — On this a search warrant was obtained & they found another Cap at Kensington.

Wts bought bought in all Seven Caps from H— all South Sea Seal — the 2 caps now shewn are part of them — believes the work to be that of Davis — of he knows, as there is no body else who makes them in the same manner — it is not the usual manner — went to H— on search warr — & the Cap now produced was found, & Mr Davis claimed it as his property — the other Caps the W. sold — the furs he sold were superior to the two he now has —

x.

Has seen no Caps made in the same manner as those of Davis — Those Caps may have been made by another person than Davis — That in fall of the year it is general that a large quantity of Caps is sold that last fall a large quantity of S. Sea Caps were sold at Ewean by Burnard & Larocque, & that some of them were sold at 28/- Saw a sale of Caps notified at Bradley & Knap's for sale —

Wm pd. 30/- for 5 Caps he bot. at H's on 4 Jan. That H. may have sold Caps to Audson for sale, did not suppose they were stolen —

John Harrington — lives in S Paul Street, buys & sells on commission — Wm. Pr — who last fall called on him & brot. South Sea Seal Caps — for sale — the number was kept in his books by his Clerk — The Pr stopt for a day or two at Town of W — for a day or two — desired to come to the Shop — Pr. at first brot. 3 South Seal Caps & two common ones — he limited the S. Sea Caps at 25/ p dozen — Wm. Mr Mead, has seen him in his store — does not recollect having sold Caps to the last Witness that he asked the price of the Caps. The Caps he got from a Jew by means of the Pr & that he said, he had manufactured them — & wanted Wm to sell them on Commission — Witness cannot read or write — Desired his clerk, when the Pr brot caps for sale to enter them in the book & the name of the person who brot them —

x^d. —

The Caps were brot to his shop in the day time by Pr

James Coney — was book keeper to last Wm — has seen the Pr come to the Store often — he gave caps to sell on Commission, & Wm was directed to keep an acct of the Caps he rec^d — In looking at the book now shewn — there is an acct there of the Caps he rec^d from the Pr — amounting in all to 22 Caps — £22. 10. 1/p which he rec^d. from Harrington — Could not make out the name of the Pr from the receipts — did not enter his name in the book.

he asked his name once, but as he was speaking to Mr Harrington, he did not get it —
The cap he now examines is one of those brot to the shop of Harrington by Pc — When the search warrt came there was only one cap found at H.'s the price of which was limited at 10/ — The Pc said that he made the Caps himself — That he lived near the Bishop's Church — Has not pd Pc for the two last caps sold to Mead, for 11 Dollars —

Has been about 14 months in Harrington's service — The caps were brot to H's in open day —

Samuel Davies, lives in Montreal for 19 — 20 years, is in furnit — His Pc who is his brother in law — He has a store in St Paul Street, but his dwelling house is near Bon Secours — his stock is large — makes to extent of some 1000 Caps in the year — found the S. Ina Caps sell very readily — He made the Cap now produced, — He stays at home — his wife attends the shop — He could not miss any Caps out of his store — when Mead came to tell him that he had purchased some of his S. Ina Caps at 5/ & 6 dollars — he was surprized, as he did he never sold his Caps at that price — & if he could not get his price he kept it — Mead could not convince him that he had purchased his caps at 5/ Dollars — went along w Mead to his shop — when he recognized the Cap shewn him to be his property

he got a Search Warrant - search'd Harris's Shop - saw an Old Box under the Counter full of Caps & pistols and the Caps he claim'd & knew to be his property - He then told the Clerk he had been robbed & he had been selling his Caps The Clerk shewed the book saying they had sold a good many Caps - shewed a receipt but the Watch could not make out the name but the Clerk s? it was Joseph Henry - The Clerk s? the man will be here to day for the money of two Caps, the w? shew him to Mr - On examining the receipt & Sale at the Store - We found he had send 275 Caps to the Shop, and after sometime Mrs Davis said that a great many were missing to the Amt of 63 South Sea Seal - one Russia Lamb - 3 Persians - 11, de Jennette the South Sea Caps were worth 10 dollars each - the Jennett 12/6 - the Russia Lamb 20/ - the 3 Fishers 35/ each - There were more than one Russia Lamb skin missing & found more in the book of H - When he saw P: at Police office he had no conversation with him - The P: boarded at house of Watch from 2 Nov: last & left it 3 days before he was arrested - The P: could get the key of the Store whenever he wanted it - & the Watch could not have missed what was taken until the Spring of the Year when he takes an Acct of his property - would know his Caps among a Thousand and could tell them immediately.

He made a large quantity of Caps and sold a great quantity in course of last fall—
He never sold Caps at the price stated by Harrison nor for less than 10 dollr— He took a quantity of Caps down to Quebec last fall—

There are no such Caps as his made in town—
Never employed Pr— as his agent—

Wm Irvine. made a great quantity of peaks for Davis, I on looking at the peaks on the Caps now shown me says two of them, the other he says not, that he has not made the same kind of peaks, of the same pattern for any other person but Mr Davis—

Has cut peaks for Mr Taylor, but not of same pattern but for 2 years he has made none of the kind now exhibited for any but Mr Davis—

Wm I. Dennont— lives in Montreal, Ks. Pr he has called at the Store when Pr lodges— has seen him come to buy Snuff— a person came there once wt 2 Caps for sale & he more remembers it was the Pr— wished leave them there till he called for them— This was in Dec & Jany last—

Jane Harrison, lives in St Paul Street— Ks Pr remembers having seen him in her house last fall She keeps a boarding house— remembers— he

bro[t]

a four cask at one time, and two casks at another time — Cannot say what kind of casks they were — asked permission to leave the casks until he should call for them — one of the Casks remained in the house about 2 hours the other two till next day —

Emelie Parent, is in service of Sam[l] Davis for two years she lives at the Store — Pr[s] he came home sometimes to the Store — he was not employed by Sam[l] Davis —

John M[c] Gowan — he purchased a cask last fall from John Harrington — & paid 30/ does not ask value of the Cask —

Samuel Davies — on looking at Cask deposited by the last Wit[s] says it is one of his, was made by him — says it is worth 9 dollars —

The peak of this cask not same as the others —

Isdrin Martineau, went w[th] a search warrant to Harrington & found the Cask now produced, and knows the two found at Breads — which are here produced —

James Carey produced again — The Pr[s] came to house

of Harrington on the Saturday evening
W. acquainted Zebulon Wt. it, he sent a constable
who arrested him & brot him up to the police office — The Pr is the man —

Defence —

Frank Meneclier de Marchon — is clerk in the employ of Lavergne Bernard & Co — They had a large consignment of fur caps for sale last year of all kinds — There were 4 or 5 doz of L. Sea Seal — sold 25 at a time — & even all sold — they brot. 6 3/4 dollars — & at inferior prices. some of the inferior quality were sold at 15 3/4 They were of a better quality than the fur of those now shewn —

Similar Caps made up here were sold dearer

Benjamin Gold — is clerk of Begly & Knowes — Knows L. Davis, furrier — last fall he sent some Caps here for sale — the Pr brot them here — & Davis came afterwards & settled the business — & they were delivered back to a young woman for Davis — Had Caps of a similar description to what now shewn have been sold by Begly & Knowes —

John E. Mills, Merch.t in Montreal — Ks Davis he would not believe them on his oath from what he has of his character —

has had no transactions w.t Davis for 8 or 9 years — he may have reformed since that time, but that he knows him for a great scoundrel —

Ks Alexander Begley — Merch.t in Montreal, carries on an Auctioneer establishment — last fall the Pr brot some furs & Caps for Sale — that Davis afterwards settled the business with them —

Moses Davis. Ks S. Davis, is his brother — would not in all cases believe him on oath: if he had any object in view —

Davis will take a false oath if it were only to be revenged on another person — Knows of no quarrel the S.d Davis has had with the Pr

Pierre Groux. Ks. the Pr & family — They are a respectable family — until lately he always considered the Pr as an honest man —

Solomon Benjamin, Ks Pr & his family — he is of a good family — has character until accused here always

15 a 20 — More than 30 ans. hf. dollars — some Spanish dollars — there were about 15 a 18 Eng.h Crowns — there were about 60 a 70 hf Crowns — all which was in his box a trunk on top of a buffet, about 6 feet high —

W.m was intimate w.th Dr — who came frequently to his house — he had invited W.m to go & spend the evening of the New years day w.th him. — That W.m staid & slept in house where his money was — and before going out, he shut up all his house and the window of W.m was broken open was shut, but the shutter was not shut — the other persons of the house had all gone out & the W.m was the last who left it, & shut up every place, and he then observed that his trunks with the money was, was there also — Went to Dr w.th his wife — there was one Hunteau & his wife, one Oliver Ragot one de Rencard — besides Dr's wife & servant girl — They supped there — & amused themselves during the evening — in the course of the evening the Dr went out once & came back soon — he went out a second time about 8 o'Clock or hf past 8 — he was absent between 1/4 & 1/2 hour — he had sufficient time to have gone to house of W.m & to go & come back — Some one observed that Dr was gone — his girl observed, that he was gone out to get wood for the fire — it was then told

& the Chimney was hf full of wood — This appeard some what singular — The Wit this wife, Richer & his wife & Rozet went to W — they found the door locked, he opened it & went in, but before & after a Candle he felt that a window had been opend, & on further exn found that a pane of glass broken near the bolt, so that it was easy to raise the bolt — on the floor there were peice of the glass in the room — the trunk & money was gone — the bolt above had slipt out by forcing the window — all the other doors & windows remained shut as when he left the house in the morn & going to Ors W went to Ors — There was blood on the trunk, when found, with met Or at Corner of his house & told him that his house had been broken & his trunk stolen & Or & his stable had been broken open three padlocks broken & 3 turkies stolen — Richer & Rozet were with W The Or went to his house with Richer — & when Richer came back. W went to Cabassa's the Justice, & got a search warrant for same the bailiff went to Ors & Wt remained and aide — and they then went to hay loft in stable of the Or to search — The Wit went into the hayloft, where he found his trunk near the

further end of the loft covered with a little hay — he carried it to Mr Corbassa — where the contents were exam.d — it had not been opened — W. had the key, & opened it, and found all his money, being 136 dollars less 4 dols —

That he had counted his money the evening before — & found it as above stated had spent noth.g out of it since it was stolen —

The trunk now shewn is the one he lost. & in which his money was —

There are marks of blood still to be seen on the Cassette — And on his return from Corbassa's state observed that the Pl.ns hand had been cut, & that there was blood on it The Pr S. he had done it with the poker —

The lost was at stable of Pr — but found nothing broken there —

x2 —

There were three men left to take charge of the Pr. in his house — The Pr took the poker and threatened the W. on this he went out and went to the magistrates for a warrant —

The Pr had allowed the Wit. to put some hay in the hay loft, but it belonged to the Pr

Augustin Richer, lives at Sorel — is Pr who lives there also — on the opposite side of the street — saw was at Fortier's on New Years day - he had been invited by the Pr to pass the evening wt him - went then from Fortier's about ½ past 3 o'clock - On going out from Fortier's house, Fortier shut up the house & locked the door - There were 8 or 10 persons in all at the Pr's including Pr's wife and servant girl - The Pr went out twice in the even[g] - The first about 7 3/4 o'clk, but was not long gone - the second time he went out, he was gone about a ½ hour, had ample time to go across the street to house of Fortier - Before he went out the 2d time the persons began to talk of going away, after he had been out some time, it was remarked that Pr was gone, when the servt girl said he had gone for wood - but there was wood - We supposed returned to Fortier's wt him & his wife, & Fortier opened the door, & they perceived there was an air in the house as proceeds from some fire, a candle was lighted, & they found the Cassette had been stolen & the house broken open - there were panes of glass broken in a window, & the bolt lifted & the copper bolt had been forced as it was bent - saw some pieces of glass inside on the floor - We then returned to Pr's wt Fortier, met Pr at his door. Fortier told Pr that his house had been broken open and his money stolen - the Pr said they had broken open the door of his stable

the cramps forced, and two ~~broods~~ turkies stolen — W. went to the stable, the P. had a lanthorn — the stable door did not appear to have been forced; as the P. opened it with the key & shewed the place where he said the turkies had been stand — Turkies must have been kept there — The wit. proposed to go up to the hay loft, the P. was opposed to this, saying no body should go there — The Candle was extinguished & W came down & went back to the house — he suspected the P. — and they arrested the P. saying that they should take care of each other until the trunk should be found, & persons were left in the house of P. to watch them — they got a warrant & made a search in the hay loft & Fowler went up there. he came down in a few minutes & Trigg saw the box there — it was locked, & was opened by Fowler who opened it with the key of P. he had — Fowler declared the money he had in the trunk before opened, and on opening it & counting the money, it was found correct — Observed that the P.'s right hand was cut — it bled — There was blood on the trunk when found — The P. said he had done

done that by some meat – to another he said that he had cut his hand by taking hold of the poker –

That Fortier is brother in law of Wr The wife of Wr was with him at Drs That there is a well in Fortier's premisis, where the neighbours take water, which is open at all hours night and day –

That he rem. that the servt girl called to the Dr to go & get some dry wood to light the fire on this the Dr went out the 2d time – about a½ after he had been gone the Wr & several others went away, & on going out they ~~did not see the Dr coming from towards his outhouses~~ In going by the broken window, the trunk was in the 2d room from it – on finding house broken & trunk gone they returned to Drs & met the Dr at the Corner of his house, when Fortier told him that his money had been stolen –

Olivier Rageot, ks Godefroi Fortier at Sorel – ks Dr who lives on the opposite side the street – Was at Drs on New Years day in afternoon, was invited to go & sup at his house – went just to Fortiers, & went wt him to Drs Fortier was the last who came out of his house & shut it up – Ks that Fortier used to keep his money in a Cassette on the top of a Cupboard

They were about 8 or 10 persons in all at the Prs. The Pr went out twice that evening, the first time a little after 7 o'Clock, the first time he was out 8 or 9 minutes — he went out a second time & remained out about ½ hour — Deane one asked where he was gone — the girl said he was gone out for wood to make up the fire — There was wood at the time in the Chimney — As the Pr had not return, they went away — W. Richardson & Foster this corpse — they came to Foster's house, who took his key & opened the door — & immediately finding the air cool Foster called out that his house had been broken open — the Candle was lighted — & he observed that some one had broken a pane of glass near to the lower bolt, and the upper bolt had given way — the window was forced & 6 or 7 panes of glass broken — the Cassette with the money was gone — They then went to the Pr they met him at the corner of his own house with some wood — Foster told him that his house had been broken open and his money stolen — & that his stable had been forced open & some turkies taken — But Richardson went with Pr up to the stable and took remained in the house — to take care of the persons of the house with one Thomas & one Hartigan — Foster & Richardson went to the Magistrates, returned with a warrant. The Pr struck one of the Persons in the house w the potaw — W went to the Stable of Pr with Tregama & the others — Fortier & some others soon returns with the trunk —

Ther took perceived that the P had his hand cut — & that there was blood on the Casette, which was yet fresh — the girl asked P how he had cut his hand — he said it was upon some meat. that Pr afterwards said it was done with the potaw — Observed that the Prs hand was cut before he took up the poker to strike with it — That they all left Prs house except Hautcau & his wife, who remained in Prs house, when the —

Met the Pr at the Corner of his house w an armsful of wood, as they came back from Forts —

When the Pr struck Thouin, there was no want of the Pr — That Richer ordered the persons on the part of the King to guard the Pr & if he went out any where to go with him —

Pr S. at first it was his padlock that was broken & when it was found whole — he said it was his Creance —

Pierre Thouin was at Fordins on even's of New Year — That the girl of the Pr came to house of W & told him that Fortier had been robbed, & requested W to come to the house, & that if he would go up to the

Loft

hay loft of the stable he would find the thief or the robber — this was between 8 & 9
O'Clock — the girl lives w^th P^r she is from St
Francis — that Trottier came to W^m house &
requested him to come to P^r and directed him
to remain there until they could get a warrant
W^m went to P^r who told him that he had had 3 turkies stolen, his cramps forced out, & his padlocks forced — The Lords asked P to shew the Cadenat, he shewed it — observed that the hand of P^r was full of blood —
The Key did not answer — went to the Stable
with the P^r but found nothing appeared to have been forced — They returned to the house — The Girl then said — are they watch
you here? — The P^r made same question — the W^m P. They were all here to watch each other until a warrant is obtained — the P^r
took the poker and struck him twice w^th it,
he took up a pruning to strike him again,
but wife of P^r laid hold of arm & W^m went out — at door he saw Hurteau, & Thibeau & afterwards the W^m & soon after the warrant arrived —

Pierre Hurteau, lives at Sorel — was one of the party at the P^rs on 1^r Sunday last — ~~did~~ they supped at P^rs — in the evening the P^r went out twice — first time about 7 o'Cl & came in soon after — went out

a

a second time – he had remaind out about 10 minutes when it was demanded of the servant girl where he was gone – she s^d he had gone to get dry wood to light the fire – did not hear any demand made for wood before this – When the Pr came back the 2^d time all were gone except Wr and his wife – Forster came in nearly at the same time, & observed that his money had been stolen & his house broken open – W observed that the Prs right hand was cut & bled a good deal – was commanded by bailiff to search – and in the stable left the cartridge now shewn was found – there was blood on it quite fresh –

x

Before Forster came into Pr house, the Pr said his stable had been forced open & 3 turkies stolen – immediately on this Mr Forster came in, & stated that he had lost his money –

When the Pr went out the first time, he staid out longer than he did when he went out the second time –

Pr Frigarme – bailiff. drives at Sand, was called in evening of New Years Day about 9 O'Clock – Forster obt^d a warrant drawn to house of Pr & desired 3 men to take charge of Pr during the search – That Forster, Rucker & Hunter went along w^t him to Pr – he got the key from the Pr opened the padlock & Forster went up to the loft where

he brought down the trunks - saying he had found it - There was blood on the trunks - observed that the Dc had his hand cut - carried ~~money to~~ the trunk & money to Malo. - the money was counted at the Magistrates. -

Defence. -

The Prisoner addressed the Jury on his defence

Marie Grondin - has been in the Ps service upwards of six years - he has a property at Three Rivers he has lived there 6 years w Pc & two years at Sorel - was w him on 1st Jany last - when he gave a party - That Fortin & his wife came to Ps to ask him to go to their house - They sat down to table, there were several persons eleven in all - The Pc went out about 9 & he was absent about ½ hour - he went out a second time, but it was at the request of the Ps to get wood to make a fire, as the women & Children complained of being cold - The Pc was not absent on this occasion above 9 minutes he came in w wood & made up the fire - some of the men said it was not necessary to make fire, it was not cold - but they had been drinking.

The

The Pr was not much disposed for the fricot, but the wife of the Pr wished it — W observed she wished to get her friends, but she had asked her enemies —

Before Pr came back W wood the persons had gone away — that Foster came in almost immediately & said My Dr Bramel I have lost my money — the Pr then said he had been robbed also, & asked W. if she had shut the stable door she said she had — That then Reiher came in & directed persons in the Kings name to take charge of the Pr and Pr did not go out afterwards — That some difficulty occurred between Pr & the persons in house —

That it was on laying hold of the poker, that he had torn his hand, asked a rag from W to tie it up — the stone pan is old & broken. & he hit off it — W bound up his hand —

It was impossible, that in the short time the Pr was absent that he could have stolen the trunk & put it in the stable & returned to the house — Went to see the broken window, it would have required an axe to break it as it was —

She went to Thomin to talk him to come to Pr but he refused, saying he had no right to do —

The persons sent on that occasion were mostly in liquor —

That she told Thomin, if he would look

look in the hay loft he might find the money & the Thief, as she had a little before seen some one run from under the Derrick when the search was first made — & this induced her to tell Thomin to look there —

Considers Pr to be a very honest man — & has known him to be industrious & to have a good deal of money at times —

When she came in, they were singing, and when the song was done, she told the Pr what she had seen of the man in the Yard —

The Pr took the Key of the Cabenet to get the Dry wood, as it was kept there —

Julien Perrault: knows Pr for four years — he had an order from Mr Norvilles of Three Rivers on Pr for 35 a 40 dollars, & he delivered him, & as he presumes was paid —

Knows that Pr usually dealt in fish & pork —

Ulrick Boudreau — Has known Pr for 20 years — every transaction he has had with him he has always behaved honestly — Thinks that Pr returned 2 or 3 yds linen as he had been put up in his bundle of articles he had bought —

face wt it & when he took it, he pushed the Defend. when he fell among some bottles, upon which the wife of Defd. to come up, and took up the brush of a wheel and threatened to dash his head open wt it — The Wr took it from her — and requested her to go down stairs, as he had business only wt the husband — The woman Wife of the husband did not get up immediately & beat Wr she wd murder him — on this the Defd. and his wife laid hold of him and beat him — he stood in upon Defd. who wanted to get a stick — while he was thus employed the woman came behind Wr with an iron hoop & wounded him on the head in several places & left marks which he will always bear. on this his servants came up and rescued him — a Medical man was sent for who still attends him —

Next Pr who was strangers to him, & took them into his service. —

When the woman came up Stairs, the man was sitting on a trunk — That when the man pushed the harness in his face. the Wr took the harness & pushed the Pr wt it, so that being in liquor he fell down

Elizabeth House, lives in Mr Burleys house — saw no Pr

north of this post, saw B. when he came down from the garret, his head & shoulders were covered with blood, when the Dr came she observed two large cuts on the head — saw the 2 Prs the man had a stick in his hand — not a large stick — the Pr was bloody, the woman s^d she would shew she was an Irish woman, it was not a man who had done it was a woman — Mrs B. was confined to his room for 14 days —

Believes that the Pr was in liquor — that Mr Burby is a little hasty at times —

Anne Lee — lives in D. Lane — went to Burby's after this affair was over, saw his head badly cut in 2 or 3 places — Boy & mans saw the Pr the woman said she did not care what she had done but if she met Burby in the street she would do as much again —

William Lee — was sent for & saw Mr Burby covered with blood, his head wounded — saw Pr afterwards. The man said he wd go back & have another round & flourishing a stick at the time — advised him to retire — Mrs Mrs B. was confined to his room —

John Richardson — on 16 Febry. he saw the Pr who was jumping about in the street, he had a stick in his hand this was the stick he had been beat wth & would

would have his revenge—

Wm Primrose Smith, Surgeon, was called on 16th by last to go to Wm Busby—saw wounds on his head, ye[r] he thinks were inflicted with a stick—he had a severe contusion on the arm & two contusions on the head

Defence.—

Mary Barnett—Is Mr Busby's house keeper—was there when he broke Drs into his house—& remained there until this quarrel—there were several misunderstandings between them & Mr Busby—has heard Mr Busby threaten them that if he did not do their duty he would turn them and would kick him—

The P. went out on 16th & returned was then a little in liquor—went and a second time & came back much in liquor—

Alex[r] Busby—brot up again—cannot say whether the Drs intended to murder him, but thinks this was the intention of the female Jury—

Alex[r] Aytoun—That the P. applied to him for a warrt agt Mr Busby for an assault & battery about the same time—

Wm

Wm Berno, for parties, has heard Mr Busby threaten the Pr to kill — use him — Mr B. is sometimes violent —

Verdict Guilty of Simple Assault

The King
v
Hugh Tracey } On Indictment for an assault wt intent to murder —

Jeremie Rochon lives in Nov. last at Beauharnois on the 6th of that month he was at Daigneau's where several persons came to amuse themselves — the Pr was wt them — asked for a fiddle to dance — woman of house objected to it as her husband was not there — Wr was sent for him — he came — W. worked in the shop till 9 o'Clock — he danced wt the others — the party was almost all in liquor — one of them who was dancing falling on Wr he pushed him off when he gave Wr a blow — but this was settled — Continued till after ten o'Clock, when the Pr had a dispute with another person in the room who was dancing with the rest — the Pr kicked him, and the young man cried — on this the Wr laid hold of Pr — quietly and pushed him and made him sit down, the Pr made no resistance — W. retired into another room, when the trouble began again, & running down the hall he saw

saw pr or 5 of them persons talking together
when one of them struck him — & the Pr with a Candlestick gave the Pr ~~struck~~ a blow on the head by throwing the Candlestick at him
which wounded him the bled very much.
he went up stairs locked his door & went to bed — That while there some person came and beat him much in bed on his legs & arms
so that he fell into a kind of paralisis —
That five pieces of bone came out of the wound
on the head — The Pr remained senseless
for some time — & was about six weeks that he had not the use of his speech —

X

There were 8 men belonging to the boat &
3 or 4 young men joined the party afterwards.

Catherine Roi lives at Beauharnois — on event. of 6 Nov. last a number of persons the Pr came to her house from on board a boat — they asked for a room — they then asked for a violin —
they got a fiddler — the party danced — Rochon
came in about 9 o'clk & joined the party &
danced with them — The Pr had some difficulty with a young man — she made him sit down quietly — she went to her room — she was at the door when she saw one of the boatmen struck

Rochon

Rochon — a witness was written, but she heard a baron broken, does not know whether it was thrown or not — immediately on hearing the word break she saw Rochon covered with blood — The Wife made him retire — he went upstairs to bed — The Dr came to kitchen took up a stone dish and went up to the garret — The Wife wanted to get her dish — he left it — he came down again went into another room — & threw down one of her Couchettes — We had hold of Dr — she went down stairs — came up again & found the Dr at a piece of the door beating the Dr who was lying on the floor, and the Dr shaking him — The Wife interfered and got him down stairs — they sent for Dr Masson — as the D Rochon was covered with blood — he remained two days after — the house of Wife — and she has suffered much since —

Luc Hyacinthe Masson, Surgeon lives at Beauharnois in the night between 6 & 7 Nov last he was called to an Dauphan, to see one Rochon then who was said to have been almost killed — he found Rochon in a state of insensibility and covered with blood — one side of the face much swollen — a much effervasated blood on that side he found a wound on left side of the head

about

about 2 inches long — and found on examⁿ
there was a fracture of the bone, & he could feel the pulsation of the brain — there was a great discharge of blood from some interior part —
As Rochon was in an insensible state, Dr W & it was necessary that some operation should be performed — some of bystanders insulted Dr
W: & Dr that Rochon did not need a Doctor on this Dr W. Dr that if they knew better than he would leave them to treat Rochon dressed away
about ½ of it was put on again, found Rochon had come to his senses & told him that it was necessary that an operation should be performed to relieve him as there was a fracture
of the bone — he & he was too weak requested Dr W to stop the blood — the W saw the pump of the blood was not stopt — he beat the wound together & stopt the hemorrage —
the lips of the wound closing together a circle
of blood had formed there — afraid of inflammation
he forbid Rochon using any spirituous liquors.
Dr Lacroix was sent for some days after, who agreed in the treatment given by Dr W — that the lump formed on the wound began to discharge
blood, afterwards matter was formed in it —
on this Rochon fell into paralitics, particularly on that side where the wound on the head was —
Rochon state remains under difficulty of speech.

Defence.

William Collins. No Pr. That one Campbell the master of the boat, requested of Wm to take charge of his boat, as he & the Pr had had a quarrel at Beauharnois & he was afraid to take charge of it, as he heard the man was dead — That he Campbell had thrown a bottle at him & the Pr had beat the man with a stick —

George Rolland
Charles Laplante
Jn Bte Laviolette —

On Indictment for stealing privily from the person —

Patrick Campbell Esqr — lives in Hansfield on the 11 Feby last he was on the new Market had his purse in his waistcoat pocket — he had 23 dollars in all — 21 dollars in Montreal Bank and Specie, he had also a bill on Plattsburg bank — there was a piece of 6 livres, a French piece of the value of 6 livres 5 — two five dollars of Montreal Bank, one 2 dollar bill — & one of one dollar — there were 2 ½ dollars one American ~~½~~ ½ dollar — & some French ½ Crowns — thinks in all he had eight dollars in all in Coin —

about eleven O'Clock he was going from the new market to Mr Rolland's, when he was met by four, speaks to Ledaire & Rolland as two of them, does not know the others — one of them two, asked him if he wished to buy a knife — the P. nothing had scarcely time to speak — one laid hold of the arm & the other laid hold of the other side & he felt a hand in his pocket — they run off all four, and he then found his purse was gone. A few minutes before he found his purse was in his pocket, & a few minutes after he felt him he found it gone —

That he pursued after Rolland, and requested of him to return his money, he said he had it not — one Wm Collins said that Pr had it, and it must be returned — he requested the assistance of Wm Collins — he described the persons, & Collins P. he believed he knew them — They then pursued after the Ps in a train — They went to the Cross. Collins told Wr to stand by the side of the Street — & soon after Collins & all the 4 back — & when he first them up the Wr knew Ledaire — That they went to another house, when after some conversation Ledaire Rolland threw some money on the table, of the Wr knew to be his — there was paper money however down — but cannot say of what Bank — but there was a small notch on the ten penny piece

the piece of 6d Francs he had had in his possession
for a long time, & was familiar to him
Thinks there was one of the Spanish dollars that had a hole in it — The other prisoners were present at the time — that Rolland also threw down a few pieces — That Rolland wanted to make his escape and eventually did escape.
has never seen the purse since —

X°

Never saw the Dr before — his mind was much confused —

William Collins — lives in Montreal, sworn. having seen
the last Wit near the water side, he was crying
he had Geo. Rolland with him & he accused him &
3 others of having stolen his money — requested of Wit to assist him — on this Wit. requested of Rolland
if he had the money to give it up — on this Rolland
sd. that he had it not but had seen Leclaire with the last Wit — on this Rolland went away — on his return a train, went in pursuit and came up with the four prs who were walking downwards below
the Cross — came up where the Ship was loading that Leclaire took something like bills out of his pocket as if to throw them away — sd he did not mean to do it — they went into Mad. Currie's, when Rolland took out 3 pieces of 2/9 & threw them on

the

the table, saying he did not want to be hanged
That Leclaire produced a two dollar bill,
a one dollar bills, & piece of 6 bows & some silver — Rowland was there & on seeing the piece of 6ᵗᵉ it was his money — That on the Rowland Sr. if they would give some here to his sister he would give the whole money
rather than have any trouble — That it was upon Rowlands saying to Leclaire to give up the money, that Leclaire produced the above
money — He arrested the three Brs Rowland escaped — and was afterwards taken —
The money was brt to the police office by Lavictoire —

Rowland did not confess being concerned
in the taking the money, but said that he would rather give 50 dollars than be taken up with the men — but advised Leclaire if he had the money to give it up — That he took out the three pieces, saying all the money I have got I will give up — he denied having taken the money — That he had seen Leclaire with the old man — That about half an hour before he had seen the 4 Brs together —

Barnaby Lavictoire, went in company with Collins in search of Brs & Hunt — They went down the Quebec

Reuben Sent. & saw the 4 Dr keepers there — one Converse was w. Mr Collins — They came up and Dr — when Collins & Ledain to restore this money man his money — he threw one bill of 10/ one of 5/ — a ten penny piece a 1/2 Dollar — is not positive as to the 6 pence piece — but the old man claimed the money as his — That Rolland & Ledain, give up the money if your have got it as it is a case that may hang upon — That Rolland threw down four pieces of ~~money~~ 2/9 on table & addressed Ledain as above — the other two said little — the 4 persons were then arrested —

brot the money & made —

That when Rolland threw the money the table saying it was his own money, come to any sister I would rather restore the whole money than be taken up with them persons — he seemed to be afraid, and cried —

recognizes the money he had from each of them —

That Ledain also said, it was not the money of the man, that he was giving up, when he threw down what money he had

Fran Converse, went w. the two other Witnesses to the foot of the Current in pursuit of the Drs and came up with them near Mr Young's — the old man was with them — That Rolland threw 4 pieces of 2/9 on the table & addressed Ledain

owner

saying I gave up the main money of your house & land on this Leclaire produced some bills & he knew prisoner some pieces of money saying he gave all the money he had, without saying it belonged to the old man —

That Leclaire said he had not the main money but gave up the money he had —

Louis Mallo, constable says that he received from the Asst. Lavedoir the money now produced amounts to £2.9.1 which he says he had received from the Pris Rolland & Leclaire has remained in his possession ever since — The Pris was brot up at same time Rolland surrendered himself afterwards —

Pask. Campbell Hair — Says he had similar bank bills of 2 & 1 dollar — knows Bte from Jun — as the one he had — knows the piece of 10d to be his and the Spanish dollar as it has a hole in it, & believes it to be his —

Defence —

Germain Rolland brother of Pris — knows that the money upon the robbery in question he had some pieces £-2/9 — in his possession — the Pris also worked for

102

Denis Labergé Esq. to the family of Pre Leclair for several yrs they are intimate with

Michel Leclair, father of Pre that on the morns. of the 11th Febry last, he gave the Pre two bills of two bills of 5 Dollars each — This was the same day

John Flannagan, lives in St L. Sub. has a shop there, had it in January last — he used to sleep there except about 3 days before the Robbery — Since then has always always done on stopping there — about 14 days or 3 weeks before Christmas, his shop was broken open he had remained there till about 3 o'clock in the morning — ~~he was told that~~ when he left the shop he shut it up & locked it — he was informed the shop had been broken open — he went back there in the morng. he saw the lock forced off the outer door the inner door forced open & many of his goods carried away — he went to the watch house to enquire — in the afternoon he heard that persons had been taken up at Harrington's for selling goods under value — saw some of his goods at the police office —

John Harrington. Ho the Ors his Budget Claims for 2 years — on Dec. last Clements offered a piece of grey cotton for sale — she was selling this cotton at an under value — told Mrs Flannigan of it — Mrs F. gave a description of the Cotton from its damaged appearance — Mrs F. came in & claimed the Cotton as hers, by this time the other Ors had come in, and Clements said that Cecilia Graham had given it to her for sale, & Cecilia Graham ~~said she had given it~~ claimed it as her own & took it & put it under her cloak on this the Ors sent for the Constable — values the Cotton at 3/6 —

Mary Harrington wife of last Wr keeps a store and tavern

cotton — saw Ps in Dec. last — saw Pr Clement who offered a piece of Cotton for sale — S. her husband had lost a piece of Cotton & it must belong to him without knows it — she asked 3 ⅌ pence a yard for it and this not being the value of it, she took it, and asked the where she had it — she S. she had it of a woman who came from Dukes — afterwards that she bot. it in a Store in St Pauls State — on the Ws refused to deliver it up — & on this she went out — & bot in the other Ps — saying this is the woman from whom she bought it — the Ps Graham claimed it as hers — & she would compel her to give it up, & bot in the Constable, when the Ws delivered up the Cotton to the Ps Graham — The husband of Ws went for the Constable Delarks and when ~~Delarks~~ Flannagan the husband came & asked where the Cotton was, Graham S. the Constable had it, but she had it under her cloak, where it was found —

says the Ps were not to gether when she first saw the Ps —

Elizabeth Flannagan, she attends to her husbands store, more than her husband — knows the prices better — her shop was broken open in Dec last — she went there — she missed the piece of cotton that Harrington came to tell her that a woman had offered Cotton at an under price for sale, she had described the Cotton she had lost — she went to Warrington, saw the Prs there, she knew the Cotton to be hers, the Pr Graham took it & tore a part with her teeth, & said it was her property — Wr produces a part of the other half & same piece, and knows it from that — she sold it at 4 ℔ Yd — & if not damaged it would be worth 6d — Both Pris.rs claimed the Cotton as their property — She sent her husband for Debtr, who took the Prs into custody —

John Flannagan, says the Cotton now produced is the same as that stolen, as far as he believes —

Catherine Burns — keeps a tavern, the Prs saw the Pr Graham at her house on Dec.r last, between 8 & 9 PM. she had a piece of Calico & a waistcoat, & a small piece of white Cotton. — asked Wr if she would give her something either in money or otherwise to get her a breakfast for the goods — Wr. gave her to value of 2/6 in bread & money — asked of Pr to sell her the waistcoat, she d.d so it was her husbands' — heard of Flannagan's Robbery in the afternoon of same day & Flannagan having s.d she would identify the waistcoat he had lost — she sent for Flannagan — he mentioned having lost a piece of yellow print calico & some white cotton but could swear to the waistcoat — and on company

comparing the goods & knows them to be part of the above stolen — she gave them up to Flannagan, — Mrs Flannagan told Mrs to go to Court next Day — to endeavour to find out other goods —
Values the yellow calicoe at 6d ℔ yard —

Elizabeth Flannagan identifies the piece of Calico produced by last Evidence to be her property — she used to see them in the Shop, & knows them, gave the description of it to Mrs Burns before she saw it — values it at 6½ ℔ yd — values the waistcoat at 5/ —
Then articles were delivered by her & her husband to Delisle —

John Flannagan, says he knows the waistcoat now produced to be his property — she had worn it — values it at 5/ — values the Calicoe at 6½ ℔ yd — She is about 14 yds of it —

Benjn Delisle — high Constable — was required to take charge of Prs at Harrington's on Decr last — before this Inst Graham had req. the Constable Herbert to assist her to get back a piece of Cotton, after she had been robbed from her — the other articles of Calicoe and waistcoat were delivered up to him by Mrs Burns —

The King
v
William Beach } On Indictment for Grand Larceny—

John Ferrell, was in company wth one Rafsy on 24 Sept last in the Stone public house, there was a proposition between Wm & Rafsy about the exchange of watches — Wm had then Eb. 4. in a small box. took out a 5 dollr bill & 2 fs he held the box & part of money in his hand — not observing wm Rafsy slipt back the money in the box. the box he put into his left trowser's pocket, but there being a hole in the pocket, it fell thro' into the flow he perceived somethg fall but did not take notice it was the box — it was afterwards delivered to him — & put it into his right hand pocket & began to lament the loss of his money — one Brown called him to know what was the matter — but he began to joke the Wm on seeing across the table speaking to Brown. he took a character he had from Rafsy — he began to read it loud out & threw it back at him — during this he felt somethg about the pocket in wch he had put his money, he seized the hand of Pr — drew him — he held the box between his thumb & little finger, but Wm laid hold of the hand & held it close — but the Pr pulled his hand out of that of Wm & carried the box off with him, — the Wm when turned round

being

being alarmed for his money. he complained of his loss, but the Soldiers then present told him to go about his business — Went away down stairs, when Pr followed him, laid hold of Ws sashes if he shot — that he had his money — Ws begged he would let him go — Ws got out when Pr smashed him down — Then Ws then went to barracks & lodged his complaint with the Sergeant Major — Serjt Major directed him to stop at the gate when the men came in to see if he could recognize Pr — he saw Pr & recognized him immediately — the Pr was put in the guard when he understood the Pr had been searched Then were two 5 dollar notes in the bag —

Pr

There were between 20 & 30 Soldiers in the room besides Ws & Risby — had drank only one glass of liquor in Stones down after — he was not in the least intoxicated that evening — he was much concerned for the loss of his money — Ks Brown now present, caught the hand of Pr in his pocket in the presence of Brown & the others — never saw the Pr before that night — Never so he was robbed by Pr out of doors — was told to go to Brown to see Pr as they would give him 15 dollars if he would not prosecute the Pr — Saw Serjt Major at barracks, but was not then in liquor —

James Fay. Serjt. Major, saw last Wx in Septr last, saw him at the barracks — he was brot there by one Serjt. Forest — the Man was in a state of intoxication — the story he learned from Serjt Forest — on this told Fennell to call next morning & that he would take care that the person he should name should be put to rights —

That same night one man had been arrested before Wx came there, & the Pr also was arrested but not for this offence, but for returning to the barracks drunk — The next morning Fennell pointed out the Pr as the man who robbed him — It did not appear that the state of Fennell was owing to agitation, but to liquor. The Pr was searched by Sergeant Carr, Serjt of the Guard — Fennell would not express himself as he thought from liquor —

Considered the last Wx to be drunk when he saw him — next morning he questioned Fennell — he Pr. he had rec'd about £6 — some in Notes, some in Coin, he could not say how much in Notes, but that he could say on what Bank the Notes were — Wx was not the first person to whom Fennell spoke it was Serjt Forest — Knows Pr for nine years the character of Pr is good — he is allowed to work at his trade, privately — he is a brush maker. That he has never heard any thing of the character of the Pr since he has known him —

Would not be surprised to have found £3 or £4 on money upon him —

Francis

Francis Carr — was Serjt. of the Guard when this took place
Fennell did not see Fennell the event of the robbery
P.r searched Pr that evening, he had been drinking.
The Pr. had been accused of robbing by the Serjt. on the Outside of the gate — & gave Pr in charge to Wm
he assisted to search the Pr. found money on him — it was silver — he counted it — does not remember what became of it — Serjt Forrest got it Serjt Hartshorn was present when P. was searched

Thos Edwd Forrest, Serjt — Received either 17. or 18. 19 from the last Clerk as found on Pr — & gave it to Serjt Hudson to bring to the Court — There was a five dollar Note, ~~a piece of 5/~~ as to the other money cannot remember it. —

x

Fennell applied to him that evening, but he was very drunk, could not describe the kind of money he had lost — The Pr bears a good character in the Regt. he is a brush maker — &
may gain 5/ a day — was not surprised to find that money upon him —

Thos Rigby — Knows Jno Fennell — went to Mrs Bowers
Prison in Lisbon last — There was some talk about changing watches — F. took out a tin box & took a 5 Dollr note & 2/ — but Pr did agree — Fennell
was sober when in Lisbon Pr — Fennell said to Pr
he had lost his box and his money, & accused Pr

of —

& Powell was sober when he left the W.

Wm Hawthorn Serjt 24th Regt — The Pr was searched and there was silver found upon him, exceeding one pound, the Pr said the money is money & I expect to find it in the morning —

The Pr had been drinking, but had his recollection about him — he is considered to be a good man in the Regt —

Benjn Delisle — The Pr from home saw him in custody about 12 Oclock last — rd the 2 packets of money now produced from Serjt Watson —

Serjt Watson — Serjt Foster delivd me into his hands & had been found on the Pr he delivered it to the Regts Constable — The above rd from Serjt Carr to 1. 1. 10½ he gave it to Foster, & Foster gave it back to Wm & he delivered it to Regts Constable Delisle — I know the piece of 5/6 — to be same from the mark he put upon it —

Benjn Delisle called up again, says the money now produced is the same he rd from Serjeant Watson —

John

John Fennell — Shews the piece of 5/ a wrapper it as from two nicks on the edge of it, & he had on his person the night of the robbery — There is a small scratch on the edge of one of the pieces of 2/6

X

The Wit. saw the money the morning of the day he lost it, and examined it in the presence of his mess —

Defence

John Brown, Soldier in 24 — was in company w Fennell the night he lost his money — when ~~at Stores~~, he went into the room he heard F. had been robbed. saw P. there & he was here all the time — F. handed Wt a character to read — did not see Pr.'s hand in the pocket of Fennell — & had he put his hand there Wt must have seen it — thinks that F. was still in the room when he went away — he went out Wt Pr & was with him all the time till P. was arrested at the Barracks — that Fennel was in the house when Wt & Pr went away — Fennel did not accuse the Pr of having stolen his ~~name~~ money —

Geo. Cotterell, Corporal — was in company with Pr & Brown & two other men who were at the table with them — He heard that Fennel had been robbed at time Wt went into the room — saw Fennell hands a charact

to

to read, & made game of ~~them~~ him, as producing a character to French Soldiers to read—
They sat a table—There was a man sat between Fennel & the Pr— she must have had a very long arm to reach him—& he must have seen him

They all went away. The W. & Brown & the Pr all went away together—& he was in his company until the Pr— was stopt at the barracks—

Considers the testimony of Fennel in regard to the Pr— to be false— Fennel never accused Pr— to Wr. of having robbed—

X

Is sure that Fennel was in the room when Wr & Brown & Pr— went away— That Fennel might still have gone to the barracks before Wr—

John Fennell recognizes— the Crown from the Books

Serjt. Fossett— That Fennel told Wr That he had owned £10— & he had not that morning in Books, & that he had paid away some part of it—

Verdict. Not Guilty.—

Alexander Thibetts } On Indictment for Gr. Larceny —

William Henderson, merch.t at Hinchinbrook
last fall he purchased goods from Messrs Masson & Co.
all the articles mentioned in the Indictment except the raisins which he bo.t from Messrs McDonald & Holmes —
Work had them packed up and addressed to the Capt
of the Steam boat that plies between Lachine & Chateauguay
to be forwarded to W.m at Hinchinbrook — The goods
did not arrive — he got a search warrant, & search at the basin of Chateauguay but did not find them —
That Mr Dewitt found them afterwards — and were bo.t to W.m — The Work knew the marks, and they corresponded with the Invoice — They were in 2 packages — marked W.m W H. — There was one box of raisins also found ~~having the same~~ H. but it is not marked but corresponds w.th the Invoice — Saw the P.r when had the goods, he said he would give up the goods to the Work had would give him £20 — besides to say nothing about the goods, as he had bought them
from a Pedlar —

X

The last time he saw his goods was at the Store house at the basin — The envelopes were marked in his name —

Jn.o B.te Masson his last Wit.s — he came in Dec.r & bought at several

several articles of goods from Mr Thos were 2 ballots & a Caisse — and the envelopps was marked which he knows to be the mark of the House to wh he belongs — knows a private mark of the House on the Cassinnis, which he made himself — knows his mark on the Headwaught — is worth £4: 10 —

These goods were forwarded to Lachine for Forsythe Brooks by order of Mr Henderson —

Charles Dewitt — sworn — Mr lives at Chateauguai — the first time he has of P. at Chateauguai was in June last — he was a Schoolmaster — he was boarded in a house there — he left that in October and went to St Martins, where he also kept a School — he was but in indifferent circumstances —

Mr commands a Steamboat between Lachine & Chateauguai — Mr Henderson purchased some dry goods which he sent to Mr to be transported from Lachine to Chateauguai, wh he did, and stored them in the Store at the basson at Chateauguai — and Mr Henderson red them there. they were marked H H. — saw the goods there the 9th Dec last — on the 16th Dec last Mr He- came there for his goods, and ~~took~~ took 2 bales of

of the goods was wanting ~~was~~ a box of raisins
the Looking Glass on ye examination they found that a person going under the foundation of the ~~the~~ of war on a wooden frame. the door had been opened, and the goods carried off— They got a search warrant, & made a search, but found nothing— Heard that the Pr: who kept school, gave handful of raisins
to his Scholars— This created suspicion— That on this he got a warrant and went wt bailiff to the Prs house at St Martins, the Pr: appeared surprised, wn told him he was in search of stolen goods, the Pr: said he had no goods at his house— The Ws
& he must search the Pr: then said he had some which he had purchased of a pedlar— said he knew the pedlar when he saw him but not by name.
Ws found the different goods now produced ~~particularly~~ he put his mark upon a piece of Cotton— there were two envelopes & they found them with the name of Wm Henderson upon it.
and the Pr: & the goods were wrapped up in these envelopes— Pr: owned he had purchased the said
goods at two different times— took no invoice
of the goods, but bought them in the lump—& and he had agreed to give £20— ~~but~~ the first purchase, but had not then paid. that when

the pedlar came back he purchased for 169 dollars — and on this occasion paid the amount to the pedlar — They took the effects, and arrested the Pr — On the road the Pr requested to be discharged, that he would give up the goods make up for some articles he had sold and pay the damages offered 5 Dollars —

That there are 9 pieces of Cotton upon which Wm had marked his name — there was a piece of Dud brought in the Cottage but he did not put his mark upon — The mark on the bag of raisins is defaced but he transported a similar bag for Wm Henderson — The bag of glass is the same he found with Pr

When goods were in a back room, piled up there —

Jn B.te Masson — The amount of the Invoice was £205, but there were other goods not included in the bales — Knows his Mark on the Cassimire and the Dud brought by his handwriting Mark the Cotton was packed up in the same bales —

The Grand Jury was called sworn & charged.

The King
vs.
Jean Bte Gauthier

On Indictment for Burglary.
The Prisoner on his arraignment pleaded Guilty —

Whereupon the Court proceeded to award Judgment of death upon the Prisoner

The King
vs.
Michel Gallouppe

On Indictment for receiving stolen goods knowing them to be stolen. —

Mr Coffin Clerk of the Crown, produces the Conviction of the principal offender.

Louis Dupuis, much[t] Three Rivers – on 6. Sept last his house was broke open & goods stolen – Then were 6 pieces of Cloth. 13 pieces of calicoe. 6 pieces of Coin 15 pieces of Cambrick – 10 pieces of Mussulin – went in search of goods & Thieves – the Thieves were arrested – & convicted – he got some information respecting the goods in the poss[n]. of Pr – a man named Larmontagne & he had seen small callings of goods at door of Pr house, & he heard that some 4 persons had been seen to go there – he got a search warrant – went to house of Pr – he was not at home – found the children – & the mother in bed of Pr – she came down stairs, & on search they found in a chest a piece of bafetta – one piece de Gingham ~~bafetta~~ Dimity Carrollé, & one corpon d'Indienne, a piece of grey cloth under a paillasse – he recognized these articles to be part of his property that had been stolen – values the calicoe at 5/ – Gingham 10/ – bafetta 11/ – cloth 3/ –

The Pr is a day labourer – occupies a small house

Prs wife is a couturiere – the goods now produced are similar to those he lost – cannot identify them by any mark –

Philip Burns – H. Constable went to search warr[t] to house of Pr – ~~we left this~~ before the search – After the search & the goods found, the Pr absented himself from his house – & we could not find him –

Rem. That the Pr attended Court during the Sittings

of the Court in Sept last — The Pr walked at the bridge making in the bankside —

Jn° Bte Bolvin, Constable, went w^th warrant to search house of Pr in Sept. last — Pr this wife were absent — the mother in law come down — when search was made and found in a trunk the articles mentioned in the Indictment — Then articles he delivered to Mr Burns the Constable — he was directed to arrest the Pr — did not at first find him, but on the 25 Sept. last we went to his house & found the Pr under a couchette, covered with w^th a piece of coarse cloth — the Pr ord. he opened his brother from Quebec, to give back for him —

Knows that his brother in law did give security for Pr — Has understood that the wife of Pr is a seamstress —

Jn B^te Lamontagne — about 7 Sept last he had occasion to pass near the door of Pr — & found a piece of cloth — he put it on the fence, when he returned the cloth was not there — went in & blamed wife of Pr for leaving the cloth in that manner, she said it was not hers —

Defence —

Claude Turcot — the Pr for 5 or 6 years — he never heard any thing agt. his character as an honest man —

Verdict. Guilty —

Charles Quesnel } On Indictment for horse stealing.

Germain Boundry, lives at Becancour, Rs P. who is surpos there — on the 13 Oct last Wm had a brown mare gt he had in the park of one ~~Dustine~~ Jean Bourbeau & Beauchene — put her in the 15 Oct. the park was well closed as Bat she could not get out — values her at 30 Dollars — On the 13. he saw her in the morng — about 10 Oclock in the afternoon she was missing, and found the Pr leading away the mare and a young man an Irishman ~~was~~ was w him, he was passing the door of Wm he allowed the Pr to continue his rout with the mare and came to town and made his complaint on the next day of the Pr for stealing the mare —

x

Wm had purchased the mare from the Pr on the 15 of Oct — The W. was to give to amount of 30 dollars in work for the mare being a painter & carriage maker by trade — he had delivered one part of the work, as he had ~~2 years~~ six months for doing the work, the Pr offred to give him 2 years but he required only six months, gt Pr offred to give him —

The

The mare was then at Louis Boisseau, at the first Concession, about a league & a ½ from W.'s
The P.r immediately delivered the mare to the W.ss at his house
The mare was still at St. Cyr's, but W.s had been to see her, and the P.r told W.s that he considered her from that moment at his charge — The sale was concluded in presence of Mad.e St. Cyr — but the price had been agreed upon before W.s left his own house to go and see the mare at St. Cyr's —
On the 17.th Oct. the P.r stopt at house of W.m Beauchene asked W.s if he had been to take the mare — W.s Yes —
who sold you the mare? the W.s you, W.m Beauchene
and who delivered her to you? — You yourself —
On this the P.r went away. W.m Beauchene, without saying any thing further. —
Same evening P.r came w.th W.m Baron Atty & W.m Pyke the Notary, & asked W.s to deliver back his mare, or give him 30 dollars in money —
W.s says he has no property, & is separated as to property from his wife —

Franc.s Bourbeau & Beauchene — gave permission to Beaudry
to put his mark in his park — it was about 9 Oct
last — he saw the mare there — That on the 17.th Oct
the P.r came to W.s and asked of him leave to take away the mare — the W.s said the Mare belonged to Beaudry, who had put her there — but the P.r said she W.s be his when he had given him 30 dollars —

Verdict. Not Guilty —

Wm Bte Moreau } On Indictment for petty Larceny.

Alexis Bourigny. Lives at Becancour – came to town about 1st Feby. left his canoe in the yard of Mr Dixon put his buffalo Robe on his horse – a person came to Maricette to say a buffalo Robe had been stolen – We went to Burns who had the skin, and for knowing to be his property – about 11 O'Clk he left his Robe on his horse & about 2 O'Clk he found it had been stolen from his horse by Constable knows robe to be his property valued at 10/-

Pre Bourgeois The Pr offered him a robe for a 5/ on the first Feby last – Wr. P. he must have stolen it, as he had no carriage – said he would shew him where his carriage was – went along wr. him, at last the Pr fell upon Wr & wanted to beat him – on this the suspicions of Wr were confirmed, & he arrested the Pr – delivered him to the Constable with the Skin The skin is now here shewn

Ths. Burns – H. Const. On the 3d Feby. last he met the last Wr wt Pr who complained that Pr had struck him he carried him before the Justice, at same time the last Wr delivd. to him a buffalo Robe which the Pr wanted to sell to him, which is now here shewn – and a Constable to give information of the Robe – being suspected to be stolen – a person claimed it as his property –

Narcisse Croteau } On Indictment for stealing a mare the property of Chas Clement Dubois on 28 Sept. last —

Charles Clement Dubois — on Sept last he had a black mare in his field near the house on the 28 Sept last, saw her there in the evening — next morng she was missing — went in search — at the ferry he was told no person had crossed there — the W. then went on to St Jean, he was told by an old man that a man & black mare had passed — the W. found his mare at one Bernier's in the first concession of Lotbiniere — Bernier S. he had had the mare in exchange from another man —

Louis Bernier — lives at Lotbiniere — about St Michel last, the Pr came to his door leading a black mare saying he wanted to sell his mare — did not know

the Pr— Ps he lived at Spitally— it was about 11 Jr in the morning— Wr offered to purchase— on this he proposed to exchange the mare for the horse of Wr— which was at last agreed upon— & Pr went off w the horse going downwards—

That 2 days after, the Monday, Dubois arrived at his house, and stated that his mare had been stolen described her, and Wr restored the mare to him.— That before this on the same day the Pr had returned and passed the house of the Wr with another horse, about 2 or 3 in the afternoon—

It often happens that persons in the Country exchange horses w strangers—

That next day the Wr went to the house of Pr at St Leau & told him the mare had been taken from him & asked for his horse back— on this the Pr Ps when should he find the man he had exchanged the mare with,— The P appeared quite

Abraham DeRousseau. about 1 Oclk on Saturday last the Pr came to house of Wr & exd a horse which Wr had exchanged w him— and got the horse of Bowen

which Pc. then had in his possession — the exchange were for his Cousin Fr. DuBoman & was a good one for him — as Bernier's horse was worth more than that he gave in exchange —

Ignace Chenier lives at Gentilly, on 7th Augt last he had a number of 22 Sheep in his field — saw the Pr come in the evening after Sun down, and take one of the Sheep which he carried off — W lost sight of him after he had gone 3/4 of an acre —

When the Pr took the Sheep the W. was about 1/2 an acre from him — That the Sheep of the W. went at times on the land of Pr. & were mixed with his — he had counted his Sheep that day some hours before — Did not lodge his complaint agst the Pr. till after — he had been prosecuted by the Pr in the mean time for defamation of character in accusing him of stealing — That after seeing the Pr. carry off the Sheep he went & counted them & found there were only 21 in the field —

Felix Chenier lives near land W his brother — about the 7th Augt last

last he saw the P. wt a Sheep on his shoulder in the field of his brother — he was walking the W. cried out to him, when he threw down the Sheep — and went into the woods on his own lands — That ~~next day~~ the W. went after the P. lowered the Sheep & turned into the trompeau of his brother — next morng his brother knew the Sheep to be one of his —

W. was about 2 arp. or 2½ arp distant from P. when he saw him w the Sheep on his Shoulds — That he did not tell his brother of this till four or six months afterwards —
